Student Guide to Annotation

A BEFORE YOU READ

1. [text illegible] Before starting to read, look through the material(s) and note text features like HEADINGS bold words, italicized words, charts, graphs, images, etc. Use this information predict what the passage(s) will cover.

2. Know your purpose. Set a purpose for reading the material(s) before you begin.

3. Locate Sub-Titles (typically numerical in bolded font through-out the passage) and identify them using letters (A, B, C, D, etc.)

4. Number the paragraphs in each new section of the passage.

B AS YOU READ

1. Circle words that are unfamiliar to you and either (1) define them in the margins or (2) replace them with a synonym you know and understand.

2. Use question marks to identify questions you may have as you read. Be sure to also write down your question. This will ensure you can remember it when you have the opportunity to ask for clarification.

3. Use arrows to make comments, connections, predictions, etc. in the margins regarding key phrases and ideas within the passage(s).

4. Use exclamation marks to make note of anything that surprises or excites you. Then, make a brief note as to why in the margins.

5. Highlight key phrases within each paragraph that best summarizes and/or illustrates its main idea.

6. Place brackets around key details in each paragraph that support the highlighted phrases. You could also choose to highlight these details in a different color than what you have used to highlight the main ideas.

C AFTER YOU READ

1. Summarize each section of reading in one-two sentences. This can be done in the margins beside each section heading. This will make it easy for you to remember the main ideas presented in each section of reading AND ensure that you understood what you read.

2. Ask clarifying questions about anything you have read if appropriate.

Tips and Tricks for Highlighting Text

- Only highlight after you've reached the end of a paragraph. Stop and think about what you've read and determine the main concept before you highlight.

- Start or resolve to ONLY highlight the key phrases and ideas that BEST express the main concept in each paragraph. Try to avoid highlighting full sentences.

- Once you have reached the end of a section, look back over the highlighted words and phrases to ensure you have understood the important concepts before moving to the next section.
