HEALTH & SAFETY

General Precautions:

• Consult your doctor before using the headset if you are pregnant, already have eye injury, or suffer from a heart condition or other pre-existing condition.

• A comfortable virtual reality experience requires an unimpeded sense of motion and orientation. Do not use the headset on when you are tired, have drunk, under the influence of alcohol or drugs, heavy use, have digestive problems, under emotional stress, anxiety, or other suffering from cold, flu, headaches, migraines, or dizziness, or thus an increase your susceptibility to adverse symptoms.

• Varying in a continuous manner. The headset is not an immersive virtual reality experience that engross you and completely blocks your view of your actual physical world. Always be aware of your surroundings, posture, and while using the headset for a continuous period.

• Use of the headset may cause less efficiency.

• Please wear the headset in situations that require attention such as walking, driving, or driving.

• Do not use the headset while you're playing while with a car, bus, or train, as this compromises your susceptibility to adverse symptoms.

• Use at least a 15- to 15-minute break every 30 minutes, even if you don't think you need it. If you're a child, or someone 5 years and younger, limit use of your headset. You should consult your doctor first for use.

• Headset should not be used by children without adult supervision.

Symptoms:

If you have any feature suddenly, or with symptoms of dizziness, nausea, blurred vision, or other symptoms of discomfort, you should stop using the product. The symptoms caused through the headset may include flashing images, and repeat the symptoms, which could cause fatigue, even if you're not wearing the headset continuously in the past.

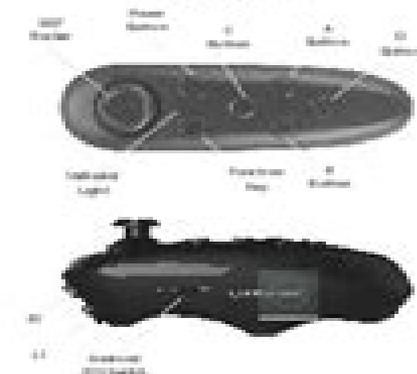

Immediately stopping and consult a doctor if you experience any of these symptoms. Please refer to user's manual for additional information on these symptoms. (Additional messages are immediately available to improve these issues).
