The Changing Face Of Calcutta:

The Changing Face of Calcutta, 2025 The Changing Face of Calcutta Shyam Chand Mukherji, 1991 The Cambridge Economic History of India: Volume 2, C.1757-c.1970 Dharma Kumar, Tapan Raychaudhuri, Irfan Habib, Meghnad Desai, 1983 Volume 2 of The Cambridge Economic History of India covers the period 1757-1970 from the establishment of British rule to its termination with epilogues on the post-Independence period The Changing World of Caste and Hierarchy in Bengal Sudarshana Bhaumik, 2022-08-26 This book challenges the prevalent assumptions of caste hierarchy and social mobility in pre-colonial and colonial Bengal. It studies the writings of colonial ethnographers, Orientalist scholars, Christian missionaries, and pre-colonial literary texts like the Mangalkavyas to show how the concept of caste emerged and argues that the jati order in Bengal was far from being a rigidly reified structure but one which had room for spatial and social mobility. The volume highlights the processes through which popular myths and beliefs of the lower caste orders of Bengal were Sanskritized. It delineates the linkages between sedentary peasant culture and the emergence of new agricultural castes in colonial Bengal. Moreover, the author discusses a wide spectrum of issues like marginality and hierarchy, the spread of Brahmanical hegemony, the creation of deities, and the process of Sanskritization, popular Saivism, the cult of Manasa in Bengal, and the revolt of 1857 and the caste question. Rich in archival sources, this book will be an essential read for scholars and researchers of colonial history, Indian history, political sociology, caste studies, exclusion studies, cultural studies, social history, cultural history, and South Asian studies, especially those interested in undivided Bengal. The Changing Face of Korean Cinema Brian Yecies, Aegyung Shim, 2015-12-22 The rapid development of Korean cinema during the decades of the 1960s and 2000s reveals a dynamic cinematic history which runs parallel to the nation's political, social, economic, and cultural transformation during these formative periods. This book examines the ways in which South Korean cinema has undergone a transformation from an antiquated local industry in the 1960s into a thriving international cinema in the 21st century. It investigates the circumstances that allowed these two eras to emerge as creative watersheds and demonstrates the forces behind Korea's positioning of itself as an important contributor to regional and global culture, and especially its interplay with Japan, Greater China, and the United States. Beginning with an explanation of the understudied operations of the film industry during its 1960s take-off, it then offers insight into the challenges that producers, directors, and policy makers faced in the 1970s and 1980s during the most volatile part of Park Chung-hee's authoritarian rule and the subsequent Chun Doo-hwan military government. It moves on to explore the film industry's professionalization in the 1990s and subsequent international expansion in the 2000s. In doing so, it explores the nexus and tensions between film policy, producing, directing, genre, and the internationalization of Korean cinema over half a century. By highlighting the recent transnational turn in national cinemas, this book underscores the impact of developments pioneered by Korean cinema on the transformation of Planet Hollywood. It will be of particular interest to students and scholars of Korean Studies and Film.

Studies The Changing Face of Portrait Photography, 2011-10-18 A richly illustrated volume examines the portrait work of Dorothea Lange, Richard Avedon, Robert Weingarten, George K. Warren, Julia Margaret Cameron, the Barr Wright Studio, Gertrude K. Seibier, Nickolas Muray, Henry Horenstein, and Lauren Greenfield. The Changing Face of Portrait Photography explores the power of the portrait and the role it plays in our personal and national identities. The Changing Face of Portrait Photography explores ten groups of portraits selected from within the Smithsonian National Museum of American History's Photographic History Collection. The selections represent work by specific photographers with diverse relationships to portraiture and through their sampling take a focused look at changing convention, theory, and technologies. The Constant and Changing Faces of the Goddess Phyllis K. Herman, Deepak Shimkhada, 2009-03-26 The Constant and Changing Faces of the Goddess Goddess Traditions of Asia contains essays written by established scholars in the field that trace the multiplicity of Asian goddesses, their continuities, discontinuities, and importance as symbols of wisdom, power, transformation, compassion, destruction, and creation. The essays demonstrate that while treatments of the goddess may vary regionally, culturally, and historically, it is possible to note some consistencies in the overall picture of the goddess in Asia. The book provides a comprehensive treatment of the goddess, culminating in the selections that draw from research on Indian, Nepali, Chinese, Japanese, and Vietnamese traditions, seldom found in other works of similar subject. The volume will be useful for students in religious studies, gender studies, Asian studies, and women's studies. With the intent of making the volume truly broad in scope, an effort has been made to include works written by art historians, sociologists, anthropologists, and religious studies scholars. Culture cannot be separated from religion; they are intertwined as an organic whole, and variations manifest themselves in the rituals and daily lives of the people. In this sense, all the essays are interconnected; the goddess manifests in many forms and appeals to differing aspects of a particular culture as a paradigm of the divine feminine. Dancing with the River Kuntala Lahiri-Dutt, Gopa Samanta, 2013-06-25 With this book, Kuntala Lahiri Dutt and Gopa Samanta offer an intimate glimpse into the microcosmic world of hybrid landscapes. Focusing on chars, the part land, part water, low-lying sandy masses that exist within the riverbeds in the floodplains of lower Bengal, the authors show how both as real-life examples and as metaphors, chars straddle the conventional categories of land and water and how people who live on them fluctuate between legitimacy and illegitimacy. The result is a study of human habitation in the nebulous space between land and water, charting a new way of thinking about land, people, and people's ways of life. Women on the March, 1971 Journal of the Asiatic Society, 1998 Indian Books in Print, 2003 West Bengal District Gazetteers: Bardhaman West Bengal (India), 1994 Essays on Islam and Indian History Richard Maxwell Eaton, 2000 Spanning some twenty-five years of research and writing, the essays in this volume fall into two categories: historiography and Indo-Islamic civilization. The former deals with how historians structure and answer the questions they choose to ask of the past; the latter covers case studies of particular historical communities in India. Socio-economic Condition of South West Bengal in the Nineteenth Century Barid Baran
