Bulletin National Tuberculosis Association, 1960 Women and Smoking: A Report of the Surgeon General David Satcher, 2008-05 This is the second report of the U.S. Surgeon General devoted to women smoking. The first was published in 1980, 16 years after the initial landmark report on smoking and health appeared in 1964, which demonstrated that smoking was a cause of human cancer and other diseases. Most of the early evidence was based on men. By the time of the 1980 report, the evidence clearly showed that women were also experiencing devastating health consequences from smoking. The first signs of an epidemic of smoking-related disease among women are now appearing. This report reviews the now massive body of evidence on women smoking, evidence that compels us to make reducing and preventing smoking one of the highest priorities for women's health.
