The Suburbs Of Hell:

The Suburbs of Hell Randolph Stow, 2015-08-26 His eyes are on the one eye of the rifle His mouth splits open his brown beard He throws up a hand palm outward in an unwilling futile gesture to ward off death A killer is hounding the seaside town of Old Tornwich Residents are gripped by fear and suspicion and the finger of blame is pointed in all directions But the bodies keep falling and the crimes remain unsolved the culprit at large No mere whodunnit The Suburbs of Hell its story inspired by a real life serial killer is a profoundly disturbing psychological drama with a devastating conclusion the final work of one of Australia s greatest writers Julian Randolph Mick Stow was born in Geraldton Western Australia in 1935 He attended local schools before boarding at Guildford Grammar in Perth where the renowned author Kenneth Mackenzie had been a student While at university he sent his poems to a British publisher The resulting collection Act One won the Australian Literature Society s Gold Medal in 1957 as did the prolific young writer s third novel To the Islands the following year To the Islands also won the 1958 Miles Franklin Literary Award Stow reworked the novel for a second edition almost twenty five years later but never allowed its two predecessors to be republished He worked briefly as an anthropologist s assistant in New Guinea an experience that subsequently informed Visitants one of three masterful late novels then fell seriously ill and returned to Australia In the 1960s he lectured at universities in Australia and England and lived in America on a Harkness fellowship He published his second collection of verse Outrider the novel Tourmaline on which critical opinion was divided and his most popular fiction The Merry Go Round in the Sea and Midnite For years afterwards Stow produced mainly poetry libretti and reviews In 1969 he settled permanently in England first in Suffolk then in Essex where he moved in 1981 He received the 1979 Patrick White Award Randolph Stow died in 2010 aged seventy four A private man a prodigiously gifted yet intermittently silent author he has been hailed as the least visible figure of that great twentieth century triumvirate of Australian novelists whose other members are Patrick White and Christina Stead Praise for The Suburbs of Hell Both a traditional murder mystery and a meditation on the random depredations of death Australian Book Review Poetic accuracy is only one aspect of a rich talent Mr Stow has a narrative gift as well He is in fact a real novelist Observer A cleverly crafted whodunit Stow is an example of the high calibre of Australian writers of yesterday Many of these authors have been forgotten or perhaps overlooked It s pleasing to see that Text Publishing released this edition in 2015 and continue to foster some of Australia s buried talents by re publishing under Text Classics For fans of the psychological thriller and those readers who enjoy a foray into a metaphorical tale Stow delivers the goods Salty Popcorn The Suburbs of Hell Randolph Stow, 2016
