them The Two Magics Henry James,2015-07-12 Excerpt from The Two Magics The Turn of the Screw Covering End The story had held us round the fire sufficiently breathless but except the obvious remark that it was gruesome as on Christmas eve in an old house a strange tale should essentially be I remember no comment uttered till somebody happened to say that it was the only case he had met in which such a visitation had fallen on a child The case I may mention was that of an apparition in just such an old house as had gathered us for the occasion an appearance of a dreadful kind to a little boy sleeping in the room with his mother and waking her up in the terror of it waking her not to dissipate his dread and soothe him to sleep again but to encounter also herself before she had succeeded in doing so the same sight that had shaken him It was this observation that drew from Douglas not immediately but later in the evening a reply that had the interesting consequence to which I call attention Someone else told a story not particularly effective which I saw he was not following

This I took for a sign that he had himself something to produce and that we should only have to wait About the Publisher
