Untilled Field (1903). By: George Moore George Moore,2016-12-03 Originally published in 1903 The Untilled Field proved to be one of Moore s works that pleased Moore best for its affectionate portraits of Irish rural life Though modeled initially on Turgenyev s Tales of a Sportsman the stories soon became original inspirations woven out of Moore s memories of the peasants who lived and worked on his family estate in Mayo It is one of the richest and most perfectly written of his works George Augustus Moore 24 February 1852 21 January 1933 was an Irish novelist short story writer poet art critic memoirist and dramatist Moore came from a Roman Catholic landed family who lived at Moore Hall in Carra County Mayo He originally wanted to be a painter and studied art in Paris during the 1870s There he befriended many of the leading French artists and writers of the day As a naturalistic writer he was amongst the first English language authors to absorb the lessons of the French realists and was particularly influenced by the works of mile Zola His writings influenced James Joyce according to the literary critic and biographer Richard Ellmann and although Moore s work is sometimes seen as outside the mainstream of both Irish and British literature he is as often regarded as the first great modern Irish novelist George Moore was born in Moore Hall in 1852 As a child Moore enjoyed the novels of Walter Scott which his father read to him He spent a good deal of time outdoors with his brother Maurice George Moore and also became friendly with the young Willie and Oscar Wilde who spent their summer holidays at nearby Moytura Oscar was to later quip of Moore He conducts his education in public His father had again turned his attention to horse breeding and in 1861 brought his champion horse Croagh Patrick to England for a successful racing season together with his wife and nine year old son For a while George was left at Cliff s stables until his father decided to send George to his alma mater facilitated by his winnings Moore s formal education started at St Mary s College Oscott a Catholic boarding school near Birmingham where he was the youngest of 150 boys He spent all of 1864 at home having contracted a lung infection brought about by a breakdown in his health His academic performance was poor while he was hungry and unhappy In January 1865 he returned to St Mary s College with his brother Maurice where he refused to study as instructed and spent time reading novels and poems That December the principal Spencer Northcote wrote a report that he hardly knew what to say about George By the summer of 1867 he was expelled for in his own words idleness and general worthlessness and returned to Mayo His father once remarked about George and his brother Maurice I fear those two redheaded boys are stupid an observation which proved untrue for all four boys
