West Point Guide:

West Point U.S. Military Academy Rod Miller, 2002 West Point's rolling geography originally chosen for military reasons has had a profound effect on the campus plan and architectural design. Founded in 1802 by an act of President Thomas Jefferson, the campus is a showcase of austere Gothic and Romanesque designs by preeminent collegiate architect Ralph Adams Cram, with notable works by Richard Morris Hunt, McKim, Mead, White, Paul Cret, and Sasaki and Associates. Beginning August 2001, West Point will celebrate its 200th anniversary with events for cadets and tourists alike.

Federal Writers' Project, 2013-10-31 During the 1930s in the United States the Works Progress Administration developed the Federal Writers Project to support writers and artists while making a national effort to document the country's shared history and culture. The American Guide series consists of individual guides to each of the states. Little known authors many of whom would later become celebrated literary figures were commissioned to write these important books. John Steinbeck, Saul Bellow, Zora Neale Hurston, and Ralph Ellison are among the more than 6,000 writers, editors, historians, and researchers who documented this celebration of local histories. Photographs, drawings, driving tours, detailed descriptions of towns, and rich cultural details exhibit each state's unique flavor. The WPA Guide to New York provides a total of 45 excellent tours taking the reader across the Empire State from Niagara Falls and the Adirondacks to the five boroughs of New York City. In addition to the nation's center for culture and industry, New York also contains rich Native American, Revolutionary, and immigration history, all detailed in this diverse guide for a diverse state.
