Western Humanism Christian Perspective:

A Christian Perspective of Postmodern Existentialism John D. Carter, 2021-06-08 The Western Humanism originating in classical Greek philosophy where the capacity of human reason became the dominant means for perceiving a worldview based in reality reigned in Western philosophy until the onset of Postmodern Existentialism in the mid twentieth century Plato's Theory of Forms prepared the Western gentile mind to accept the rationality of a transcendent ultimate reality and in so doing steered the gentile mind from its bent to pantheistic deities The apostle Paul boldly proclaimed to the Athenians that their unknown god was indeed the transcendent God of Abraham Isaac and Jacob Christianity prevailed in Western philosophy until the Enlightenment which was the result of the unprecedented success of the scientific method began to turn the Western mind to the existentialistic idea of the relativity of moral truth Western Humanism John Darrell Carter, 2005 In this book I elucidate the mechanisms by which humanistic thought has become prevalent in Western culture a culture where Christianity once had dominate sway Since the elevation of Scripture to this supreme position is a foundational presupposition to this work my primary audience will probably be a Christian one where the term humanism is already perceived as a system of thought that is opposed to a scriptural interpretation of reality Dietrich Bonhoeffer's Christian Humanism Jens Zimmermann, 2019-06-13 Jens Zimmermann locates Bonhoeffer within the Christian humanist tradition extending back to patristic theology He begins by explaining Bonhoeffer's own use of the term humanism and Christian humanism and considering how his criticism of liberal Protestant theology prevents him from articulating his own theology rhetorically as a Christian humanism He then provides an in depth portrayal of Bonhoeffer's theological anthropology and establishes that Bonhoeffer's Christology and attendant anthropology closely resemble patristic teaching The volume also considers Bonhoeffer's mature anthropology focusing in particular on the Christian self It introduces the hermeneutic quality of Bonhoeffer's theology as a further important feature of his Christian humanism In contrast to secular and religious fundamentalisms Bonhoeffer offers a hermeneutic understanding of truth as participation in the Christ event that makes interpretation central to human knowing Having established the hermeneutical structure of his theology and his personalist configuration of reality Zimmermann outlines Bonhoeffer's ethics as Christformation Building on the hermeneutic theology and participatory ethics of the previous chapters he then shows how a major part of Bonhoeffer's life and theology namely his dedication to the Bible as God's word is also consistent with his Christian humanism The Oxford Handbook of Humanism Anthony B. Pinn, 2021 As a system of thought that values human needs and experiences over supernatural concerns humanism has gained greater attention amid the rapidly shifting demographics of religious communities This outlook has taken on global dimensions with activists artists and thinkers forming a humanistic response not only to religion but to the pressing social and political issues of the 21st century The Oxford Handbook of Humanism aims to explore the subject by analyzing its history its philosophical development and its influence on culture It will also discuss humanism as a global phenomenon an approach that has often been neglected in more Western focused works

Humanism in Trans-civilizational Perspectives Jana S. Rošker, 2023-09-10 This book introduces into the current global ethics debate models of humanism developed in classical Chinese traditions which have not yet been comprehensively presented to Western scholarship or integrated into the framework of global discourses on social ethics and morality It creates new paradigms for an understanding of humanism that meets the demands of our time It begins by presenting European descriptions and critical assessments of this discourse and then moves to an exploration of humanistic ideas shaped through historical developments in Asia with a focus on the Chinese tradition In this sense the book is written from a transcivilizational perspective The methods used in the research transcend that is surpass and overcome the rigid isolating and essentialist concept of civilization At the same time the book points to the possibility of transformation through the exchange of knowledge and ideas between different civilizations Within this framework the book starts from the assumption that the ontology of civilizations and cultures is not based on immutable substances but on the relations between different factors that constitute them as categories The transcivilizational perspective rooted in transcultural dialogues between philosophies that originated in different cultures and civilizations is particularly valuable because of the globalized world in which we live today This means that the problems that affect people in different parts of the world and the issues that are embedded in different geopolitical and developmental frameworks also affect all of humanity This book is of particular interest to scholars and students of global ethics globalization Asian philosophy and Sinology

Humanism in Economics and Business Domènec Melé,Martin Schlag,2015-02-25 This book offers different perspectives on Humanism as developed by Catholic Social Teaching with a particular focus on its relevance in economics and business The work is composed of three sections covering what is meant by Christian Humanism how it links with economic activity and its practical relevance in the business world of today It reviews the historical development of Christian Humanism and discusses the arguments which justify it in the current cultural context and how it contributes to human development The book argues that the current recognition of human dignity and the existence of innate human rights are both ultimately rooted in Christian Humanism It sets out the importance of the concept for economic activities and how Christian Humanism can serve as a metaphysical foundation and ethical basis for a social market economy Applying Christian Humanism to business leads to the centrality of the person in organizations and to seeing the company as a community of persons working together for the common good Three thought provoking case studies illustrate the wide reaching positive impacts of applying Christian Humanism in the organization
