Whale Rider Karen Siess, 2020-06-21 On the east coast of New Zealand the Whangara people believe their presence there dates back a thousand years or more to a single ancestor Paikea who escaped death when his canoe capsized by riding to shore on the back of a whale From then on Whangara chiefs always the first born always male have been considered Paikea s direct descendants Pai an 11 year old girl in a patriarchal New Zealand tribe believes she is destined to be the new chief But her grandfather Koro is bound by tradition to pick a male leader Pai loves Koro more than anyone in the world but she must fight him and a thousand years of tradition to fulfill her destiny Youth Culture in Global Cinema Timothy Shary, Alexandra Seibel, 2009-01-27 Coming of age is a pivotal experience for everyone So it is no surprise that filmmakers around the globe explore the experiences of growing up in their work From blockbuster U S movies such as the Harry Potter series to thought provoking foreign films such as Bend It Like Beckham and Whale Rider films about youth delve into young people s attitudes styles sexuality race families cultures class psychology and ideas These cinematic representations of youth also reflect perceptions about youth in their respective cultures as well as young people s worth to the larger society Indeed as the contributors to this volume make plain films about young people open a very revealing window on the attitudes and values of cultures across the globe Youth Culture in Global Cinema offers the first comprehensive investigation of how young people are portrayed in film around the world Eighteen established film scholars from eleven different national backgrounds discuss a wide range of films that illuminate the varied conditions in which youth live The essays are grouped thematically around the issues of youthful resistance and rebellion cultural and national identity including religion and politics and sexual maturation including gender distinctions and coming of age queer Some essays engage in close readings of films while others examine the advertising and reception of films or investigate psychological issues The volume concludes with filmographies of over 700 youth related titles arranged by nation and theme The Ocean on Fire Anaïs Maurer, 2024-03-01 Ana s
