

Who is the Good News for?

Luke 4:14, 16-21 NLT

The poor

Those who were poor in spirit would find hope in God's unfailing love—something far greater than what the world could offer.

The blind

Jesus opened the eyes of those blinded by the pride and darkness that kept them from seeing and understanding God's possibilities.

The captives

Spiritual captivity prevents us from experiencing love, forgiveness, and closeness. Jesus came to free us from spiritual entanglements.

The oppressed

While the religious traditions of the day crushed people with expectations they couldn't meet, Jesus lifted these burdens.

Decisions and Orders of the National Labor Relations Board United States. National Labor Relations Board, 1977

The Puzzled Preacher David Balsley, 2016-01-25 Why did the Lord see fit to include the book of Ecclesiastes in His inspired Word Down through the centuries many people have wondered how Solomon could have moved so far from his walk with the Lord and the wisdom of the Proverbs to the pessimism of Ecclesiastes in one lifetime For this reason some have questioned Solomons authorship of the book But Solomon is only one of many who have taken a spiritual detour in life As a result there are many people in our nation and our world who can readily identify with the outlook of Ecclesiastes because they too are living their lives as Solomon did for a time under the sun This verse by verse tour of Solomons experience will help you understand where Solomons spiritual detour took him and where he finally came to realize he should have been going instead You will be encouraged to move out from under the sun to the abundance of life in the light of the Son

God in South Africa Albert Nolan, 2024-02-01 This is a reprint of the 1988 publication which is now out of print The book was written while Albert Nolan was in hiding during the State of Emergency in South Africa This volume includes reviews of the book used with permission from the South African Grace and Truth journal from 1990 The author believes that in South Africa the practice of the struggle is the practice of faith and to show this he reviews the central themes of the Christian faith as found in the Old Testament and the preaching of Jesus the nature of sin and salvation and of God s action in the world He also faces the dilemma of Christians who can no longer support the apartheid state but are uncertain where the liberation struggle will lead Like his best selling Jesus before Christianity God in South Africa is a contextual theology a theology rooted in the painful conversion of a church to the cause of liberation It can be regarded the author says as a conversation between South African Christians but out of that conversation comes a challenge to Christians everywhere to discover the meaning of the gospel to find God in their situation This profound book written in the 1980s to guide those seeking to deploy the gospel message against the repressive and abhorrent South African apartheid regime continues to speak powerfully to all peoples in all times and in all places It continues to show how the gospels respond to the signs of the times anywhere that people are in crisis providing the tools to build a contextualised and local theology that can preach the good news of God s liberating power against all forms of injustice Albert Nolan South Africa s Gustavo Gutierrez revealed hope that God cares for and finds the poor and oppressed wherever they are For my own community the potential to construct a contextualised and local Ukrainian theology offers hope that the good news always challenges those who oppress and forever speaks liberation for those burdened by an unjust war and the despair found in its wake
