from his balcony in Piccadilly deaf toothless and a skeleton was that gay and lively spark the Earl of March when bore and boreish were words of haut ton unknown to the vulgar and the price of a borough was 5 000 l when gibbets still served for sign posts and railways were not and highwaymen were to be more exact in the early spring of the year 1767 a traveling chariot and four drew up about five in the evening before the inn at Wheatley Bridge a short stage from Oxford on the Oxford road A gig and a couple of post chaises attended by the customary group of stablemen toppers and gossips already stood before the house but these were quickly deserted in favor of the more important equipage The drawers in their aprons trooped out but the landlord foreseeing a rich harvest was first at the door of the carriage and opened it with a bow such as is rarely seen in these days Will your lordship please to alight he said No rascal cried one of those within Shut the door
