Out of the Fog Sarah Clark, 2007-11-28 The meditations in Out of The Fog range from a riff on Dr Seuss's song Waltzing with Bears to a serious discussion of Albert Schweitzer's theology of reverence for life We learn from such diverse role models as Jesus and Nemo as in the fish Nemo We celebrate the glories and agonies of the seasons in New England as well as a Wisconsin winter that rivaled the worse snows of Maine We face the dark side of humanity We are reminded that there truly are good people making a difference in the world We are asked questions about our own spiritual lives We ponder ways of creating a peaceful world We are taught by children dogs cats seashells gardens the sacredness of the every day is lifted up We are asked to think of what our children really need from us We are reminded to rest in the grace of the world We are challenged to act for what we believe in We are given hope in life and in ourselves and along the way we laugh often Excerpt from Out of the Fog I miss a fireplace A working fireplace Or rather a fireplace of delights and dreams and real logs real fire I grew up with a fireplace in our living room not used for heat but for warmth beauty visions friendliness We carefully cleaned the fireplace each Christmas Eve so Santa would not be covered in ash On Christmas Day we lit the fire using as kindling the few Christmas wrappings my mother deemed unsalvageable for another year The fireplace crackled snapped and exuded good cheer all December 25th and New Years as it did on Thanksgiving and on snowy January February and March days and evenings The fire removed the chill of fog in fall and spring and in the hurricane became briefly a working fireplace for heat for light for cooking most of all for the vision of coziness amidst the tempests roar Even in summer when the days turned damp and shivery the fire would be lit and wed

gather in its glow for fun and games I still have the old wire popcorn popper we jiggled above the flames waiting with bated breath for that first distinctive POP and then in exultation as the kernels exploded in a delicious cacophony of pows I have lost years ago the wire marshmallow and hot dog toasters that the bold thrust into the flames those of us who liked blackened marshmallows and hot dogs that split taking the risk of losing them to the fire god and the more genteel held with tense concentration hovering over the embers for perfectly browned outside sumptuously melted inside marshmallows I remember my thirteenth birthday an icy wind whistling February night when ten teen girls toasted and roasted and tried to scare each other silly with ghost stories as the fire died slowly down and the room grew dark until mother returned with hot chocolate and in her matter of fact manner stirred up the fire with a poker adding a new log for good measure breaking the spell of titillating terror We turned to giggling over riddles jokes and songs featuring a lot of mindless alliteration I remember the dinner parties as an adult when talk would turn from children to gossip to politics to God somehow the fire drew us into an intimacy and warmth that went beyond the heat upon our faces I remember so many faces some grown some gone but all faces that turned more friendly around the fire that gentled into peace sharing the best of themselves in the steadfast glow If you have such a fireplace invite your friends over stockpile wood for the storm or light a log alone and listen to the fires song If like me your fireplace is in a room long gone from you remember those of your past and those who shared them and be thankful Remember also those who have sat with you beside all the fires of your life those who need no fireplace of bricks and mortar to laugh with you and eat with you and share your fears and delights The fireplace may no longer

Restored at the Root Joseph W. Walker, 2019-08-06 Don't treat the consequence Treat the cause This book will help you gain a greater understanding of the issues that are consuming your life and will guide you toward living a life of social emotional and spiritual wellness Through Jesus Christ we have the ability to be completely free of the emotional social and spiritual struggles that have us bound But to experience lasting change we must stop dealing only with the symptoms and get to the root issue In Restored at the Root Dr Joseph W Walker III shows readers how to break free of demonic attack for good by teaching them how to do the following Identify the demonic activity beneath their emotional social and spiritual turmoil Understand the authority they have to cast out demons Find the courage to confront the issue instead of trying to camouflage it Charismatics tend to deal with life issues only from a spiritual perspective This book goes a step further by discussing the intersection between spiritual authority and clinical spiritual counseling That way readers can identify underlying issues at work which can help save their lives marriages and ministries
