author bears witness to a basic human longing that no thing can satisfy It is a distortion of that longing one that misses its ownership over himself and his own life Genuine freedom from addiction ultimately requires practicing a radical form of detachment in which we allow ordinary experience to wash over us with the full force of its true extra ordinariness This reverses the process of disownment and returns us to ourselves. In such detachment we are given back responsibility, the ability truly to respond to events rather than just reacting to them. This major work is addressed to all those who have ever had to face addiction, either in themselves or in those they love and who are still struggling to understand it.
