Management and Organization of Temporary Agency Work Bas A.S. Koene,Nathalie Galais,Christina Garsten,2014-02-03 Over the past two decades the use of flexible employment relations has increased in most developed countries The growth of temporary agency work constitutes a significant component of this development Organizations are now facing the challenges of managing a blended workforce i e a workforce consisting of both direct hires and contractors At a time when Europe as well as the rest of the world is facing enhanced global competition and a severe labor market crisis an understanding of temporary employment practices becomes all the more acute With the evolution of the use of agency work in the Western world over the past decade the chapters in this volume show how a focus on the management and organization of temporary agency work can be helpful to see possibilities and pitfalls for the use of temporary employment in the wake of changed employment practices and challenges to labor market stability and welfare structures Together the new case studies presented in this volume provide a wide scope of analysis of the organization and management of temporary agency work offering a much needed contribution to the discussion of issues and priorities that guide and shape organizational practices today Its particular uniqueness lies in the empirical richness and variety of local case studies and the way in which these are related to wider policy aims ideological shifts and the dynamics of organizational practice with a particular focus on the organization and management of blended workforces Kelly Services, Inc. V. Johnson ,1975

Temporary Agency Work and Globalisation Huiyan Fu,2016-03-03 Despite its geographic and industry expansion as part of the ongoing globalisation of service activity temporary agency work TAW is relatively understudied TAW is characterised by a distinct triangular structure where workers are typically hired by staffing or employment agencies while being dispatched to firms that use them as a type of temporary or non regular labour This agency mediated labour dispatching as a newly institutionalised industry has registered rapid growth rates over recent decades across vast swathes of the globe To a great degree TAW is part of a wider structural transformation of work and employment under neoliberalism Arguably controversy over the expanding non regular workforce is at its most acute when it comes to unsavoury labour selling practices In this connection TAW is an exemplary field in which to examine today s flexible capitalism and its concomitant phenomenon i e inequality Featuring holistic and interdisciplinary perspectives this edited collection provides a comprehensive overview of TAW in an international context It reveals how the TAW industry is intertwined with the changing relationship between the state corporations and labour unions at the institutional structural level and also the perceptions and experiences of ordinary workers in everyday practice By combining global and local forces macro and micro levels of analysis and theoretical and empirical investigations the book offers fresh insights into recurring issues of labour flexibility and inequality contributes to practical applications and facilitates fruitful cross national collaborations Railroad
