A Blueprint for Christian Education Donald W. Key, Carol Scott, 2006-12 Christian education in the local church has too often been looked upon as nothing more than an activity In many instances there is no goal purpose or structure Many times teachers have little or no training Many are put into leadership roles because there is no one else available for the job Sunday school is simply something we do before the worship meeting yet we are told in the scriptures to ateach all nationsa and to amake disciples a We simply must teach to change lives In A Blueprint for Christian Education the structure for Sunday school is considered similar to building a house There must be a plan the crew has to be selected and evaluations must occur in the building process Authors Donald W Key and Carol Scott give us an in depth look at how the church can build a more effective Christian education ministry The Christian Philosophy of Education Explained

Christian Education Lawrence O. Richards,Larry Richards,1988 This is a book that relentlessly pursues defining the goals of Christian education and then offers a plan in keeping with those goals So many books in the field assume the goals and simply describe the methods Not so Larry Richards His biblical and theological analysis conveys an excitement that makes Christian education a mission not just a responsibility And still his approach is eminently practical insightful and motivational Introduction to Biblical Christian Education Werner C.
