A Birdwatchers' Guide to Seychelles Adrian Skerrett, Ian Bullock, 1992

Road & Rec, 1990

Tobacco Goes to College Elizabeth Crisp Crawford, 2014-03-13 This is the first book to document the history of cigarette advertising on college and university campuses From the 1920s to the 1960s such advertisers had a strong financial grip on student media and thus a degree of financial power over colleges and universities across the nation The tobacco industry's strength was so great many doubted whether student newspapers and other campus media could survive without them When the Tobacco Institute the organization that governed the industry decided to pull their advertising in June of 1963 nearly 2 000 student publications needed to recover up to 50 percent of their newly lost revenue Although student newspapers are the main focus of this book tobacco's presence on campus permeated more than just the student paper Cigarette brands were promoted at football games on campus radio and through campus representatives and promotional items were placed on campus in locations such as university stores and the student union

A Birdwatchers' Guide to India Krys Kazmierczak, Raj Singh, 1998 Indispensable guide to over 90 sites and areas for birds as well as other wildlife Contains a checklist of Indian birds and the first comprehensive checklist of mammals I have been unable to find fault with the areas that I am familiar with and the maps are almost like visiting the site again It is full of detail on both the major sites and a wealth of smaller sites all of which are well worth a visit This means that the book has something for both the first time visitor and regular Indian birders This is a well thought out book crammed with useful information the authors are to be congratulated If you wish to see Indian birds this book is an absolute must Nigel Lindsey

A Birdwatchers' Guide to Morocco Patrick Bergier, Fédora Bergier, 2003 Morocco is a paradise for birdwatchers with its coasts islands wadis plains forests mountains and deserts creating conditions that are often very different from those found in Europe The richness of these habitats is clearly illustrated by the 452 species which have been recorded so far Fifteen years have passed since the publication of the first edition of this book This is a very short period in the dynamics of bird communities but a very long period in a country that has developed so quickly The Government is encouraging development and tourism for example in the Atlantic West Sahara which opens up great new sites for birdwatchers The most important and easily accessible of these new sites have been included in this second edition and the original 15 sites have been increased to at least 50

Breaking the Gender Code Georgina Hickey,2023-12-12 A history of the activism that made public spaces in American cities more accessible to women From the closing years of the nineteenth century women received subtle and not so subtle messages that they shouldn't be in public Or if they were that they were not safe Breaking the Gender Code tells the story of both this danger narrative and the resistance to it Historian Georgina Hickey investigates challenges to the code of urban gender segregation in the twentieth century focusing on organized advocacy to make the public spaces of American cities accessible to women She traces waves of activism from the Progressive Era with its calls for public restrooms safe and accessible transportation and public accommodations through and beyond second wave feminism and its focus on the creation of alternative women only spaces and extensive anti violence efforts In doing so Hickey explores how gender segregation intertwined with other systems of social control as well as how class race and sexuality shaped activists agendas and women's experiences of urban space Drawing connections between the vulnerability of women in public spaces real and presumed and contemporary debates surrounding rape culture bathroom bills and domestic violence Hickey unveils both the strikingly successful and the incomplete initiatives of activists who worked to open up public space to women
