Lectures Charles Cornwallis Chesney,2015-07-11 Excerpt from Waterloo Lectures A Study of the Campaign of 1815 There is a double satisfaction in being called upon so soon for a Second Edition of this work inasmuch as it is thus shown that the Author s effort to treat his subject in an impartial spirit has met the approval of his own countrymen while it has done something to use words which come from high authority to heal a soreness which has been kept up among our Waterloo Allies these fifty years by our arrogating to ourselves the whole credit of the victory for which they bled as well as we It may be added that although the French reviewers not unnaturally think the view here taken of their great soldier unduly severe they admit liberally that their gallant army has suffered no injustice May it not be that much of the deep bitterness with which generations of Frenchmen have viewed their national disaster has been due to the same excess of self assertion on our part of which the Prussians have complained About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Waterloo Lectures Charles Cornwallis
