Underground Asylum:

Sanctuary and Asylum Linda Rabben, 2016-09-01 The practice of sanctuary giving refuge to the threatened vulnerable stranger may be universal among humans From primate populations to ancient religious traditions to the modern legal institution of asylum anthropologist Linda Rabben explores the long history of sanctuary and analyzes modern asylum policies in North America Europe and elsewhere contrasting them with the role that courageous individuals and organizations have played in offering refuge to survivors of torture persecution and discrimination Rabben gives close attention to the mid 2010s refugee crisis in Europe and to Central Americans seeking asylum in the United States This wide ranging timely and carefully documented account draws on Rabben s experiences as a human rights advocate as well as her training as an anthropologist Sanctuary and Asylum will help citizens professionals and policy makers take informed and compassionate action A Capell Family Book

Bad News for Refugees Greg Philo, Emma Briant, Pauline Donald, 2013-08-12 Bad News for Refugees analyses the political economic and environmental contexts of migration and looks specifically at how refugees and asylum seekers have been stigmatised in political rhetoric and in media coverage Through forensic research conducted through interviews and analysis of media accounts a history of contemporary migration and asylum is written The authors examine the various catalysts for migration in doing so reveal how economic migrants refugees and asylum seekers are often conflated by the media They explain negative reactions to new arrivals describing the benefit cheat criminals and job stealing narratives that dominate anti migrant discourse Case studies reveal how hysterical and inaccurate media accounts act to legitimise political action can have terrible consequences both on the lives of refugees and also on established migrant communities Based on new research by the renowned Glasgow Media Group this book is essential reading for those concerned with the negative effects of media on public understanding and for the safety of vulnerable groups and communities in our society

Postcolonial Asylum David Farrier, 2011 This book investigates how as postcolonial studies revises its agenda to incorporate twenty first century concerns asylum has emerged as a key field of enquiry

Negro History, 1553-1903, 1969

The Human Rights of Non-citizens David Weissbrodt, 2008-06-19 Non citizens include asylum seekers rejected asylum seekers immigrants non immigrants migrant workers refugees stateless persons and trafficked persons This book argues that regardless of their citizenship status non citizens should by virtue of their essential humanity enjoy all human rights unless exceptional distinctions serve a legitimate State objective and are proportional to the achievement of that objective Non citizens should have freedom from arbitrary arrest arbitrary killing child labour forced labour inhuman treatment invasions of privacy refoulement slavery unfair trial and violations of humanitarian law Additionally non citizens should have the right to consular protection equality freedom of religion and belief labour rights for example as to collective bargaining workers compensation healthy and safe working conditions etc the right to marry peaceful association and assembly protection as minors social cultural and economic rights

There is a large gap however between the rights that international human rights law guarantee to non citizens and the realities they face In many countries non citizens are confronted with institutional and endemic discrimination and suffering The situation has worsened since 11 September 2001 as several governments have detained or otherwise violated the rights of non citizens in response to fears of terrorism This book attempts to understand and respond to the challenges of international human rights law guarantees for non citizens human rights Immigration Policy and the Scandinavian Welfare State 1945-2010 Grete Brochmann, Anniken Hagelund, 2012-05-09 This book explores the historical development of post war immigration politics in Norway Sweden and Denmark from the perspective of the welfare state examining how welfare states with high ambitions generous and inclusive welfare schemes and a strong sense of egalitarianism cope with the pressures of immigration and growing diversities Building, 1906 Parliamentary Papers Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons, 1907 Sessional Papers Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons, 1907 The Day of Wrath Mór Jókai, 1900 Set against the dramatic backdrop of the Hungarian Revolution of 1848 this epic historical novel follows the lives of a group of young revolutionaries as they fight for freedom and love in a time of war and political upheaval

Archaeologia Cambrensis, 1886 Labor Mobility and the World Economy Federico Foders, Rolf J. Langhammer, 2011-09-18 An increasing number of landings of illegal migrants on the coast of Italy and Spain but also the recent riots car burnings and street battles that occurred all across France and that have been attributed to the migrant community seem to indicate that migration is likely to stay high on the European policy agenda for some time The flow of migrants from poor to rich countries does not however constitute a typically European problem V S public policy has also been facing a continued legal and illegal inflow of labor from different regions notably Mexico and other Latin American countries And similar developments in other advanced countries Australia Canada as well as in selected fast growing emerging markets in Eastern Europe and East Asia imply that these countries too are being compelled to adjust their public policies in order to relieve migratory pressures and deal with their consequences The world economy already saw rising cross border labor flows in the 1990s and most forecasts predict that South North and South South migration will remain at relatively high levels over the next decades and possibly even turn into a major global challenge for policy makers in the 21st century The Surveyor & Municipal & County Engineer, 1898 Transactions of the Association of Water Engineers Institution of Water Engineers, 1908 Works of Maurus Jókai: The day of wrath, tr. by R. Nisbet Bain Mór Jókai, 1900 Association Medical Journal, 1906 Surveyor and Municipal and County Engineer, 1898 Refugees, Asylum Seekers and Policy in Europe Timothy J. Hatton, Jeffrey G.
