We Keep A Store:

Bunny Brown and His Sister Sue Keeping Store Laura Lee Hope, 2023-08-17 Bunny Brown and His Sister Sue Keeping Store by Laura Lee Hope is a delightful children's story that follows the imaginative adventures of Bunny Brown and his sister Sue. The narrative begins with the siblings playing indoors due to a rainy day where they engage in a game of keeping store using household items. Their play is interrupted by a series of humorous and unexpected events including a grand crash when Bunny attempts to create a high shelf for their pretend hardware store. The story progresses as the rain subsides allowing the children to venture outside to feed their pet alligators a gift from their travels in the South. The siblings' day is filled with excitement as they encounter Wango a mischievous monkey belonging to their neighbor Mr Winkler. The monkey's antics lead to a chase adding to the day's adventures. The narrative takes a turn when Bunny inadvertently brings a pet alligator to school causing a stir among his classmates and teacher. This incident is resolved with humor and understanding showcasing the children's innocence and the supportive environment around them. The story also introduces Mrs Golden a kind but frail storekeeper whom Bunny and Sue assist after a minor accident in her store. Their interaction with Mrs Golden highlights themes of kindness and community support. Throughout the book Bunny and Sue's imaginative play and real life interactions blend seamlessly creating a rich tapestry of childhood experiences. The story captures the essence of childhood curiosity and the joy of simple pleasures all while teaching valuable lessons about responsibility empathy and the importance of helping others.
