We Remember Dunkirk:

We Remember Dunkirk Frank Shaw, Joan Shaw, 2013-11-21 Yes we were scared It could be seen on the faces of the men No food didn't help We stopped to suck pebbles during the day as our tongues began to swell through lack of water We had an order come through to us one day Every man for himself And then the soldiers Belgian French and British were side by side in silent soddy ranks in columns zig zagged across the beaches I still believe this was done to minimise casualties We had to wade out up to our necks in water to get onto a boat ducking under the water when the Germans tried to mow us down Eventually I managed to grab a chain hanging off a Naval motorboat and it was fully loaded but I hung on Arthur Thomas Gunn Walsall Between 27 May and 4 June 1940 over 900 vessels rescued 338 226 people trapped at Dunkirk Cut off by the advancing German Army hundreds of thousands of Allied troops gathered on the beaches exhausted hungry and scarred by war Operation Dynamo saw British destroyers and the hundreds of little ships bring these men safely back to England where they were welcomed back by the locals with tea and sandwiches and hailed as heroes In We Remember Dunkirk we hear stories from the soldiers who made the perilous journey to Dunkirk and came under constant attack from Nazi aircraft as they boarded British ships and attempted to cross the Channel But we also hear from the nurses who tended the many returning wounded the young women who along with the rest of their communities rallied to make food and gather whatever they could to give the soldiers and what it was like witnessing all this through a child's eyes Above all we see how the solidarity of the British people gave rise to the unfailing Dunkirk Spirit We Remember Dunkirk Joan Shaw, 1990

We Remember Dunkirk Frank Shaw (Collator of war-time memories), Joan Shaw (Collator of war-time memories), 2013 The battle that took place in May 1940 was the first great epic of the Second World War The battle itself was won by the German Army inevitable once they had reached Abbeville on May 20 before the Allied High Command had realized the danger But in a sense the battle was also won by the soldiers and sailors of the British Expeditionary Forces and its allies to the extent that although all equipment was lost almost 340 000 men were brought out safely Google Books We Remember Dunkirk , Supreme Court Appellate Division 4th Dept. Vol 1536 , Never Surrender Robert Kershaw, 2009-09-03 In Never Surrender Robert Kershaw captures the authentic voices of the ordinary heroes of the Second World War from the soldiers fighting abroad to those battling on the home front and creates an extraordinary portrait of a generation fighting for survival Beginning with first hand accounts of the reaction to Chamberlain's declaration of war in 1939 Kershaw portrays the many aspects of war through the words of those who were there from the sailors of the little ships of Dunkirk to German soldiers preparing for Operation Sea Lion He takes us from the nightly horrors of the Blitz to battles in the limitless desert of North Africa and from jungle war in Burma to Lancaster bombers over Germany and the beaches of Normandy Featuring new interviews with veterans and civilians from Britain the Commonwealth and Germany as well as diaries letters and first hand accounts this is a testimony to the remarkable men and women who lived through the Second World War whose refusal to surrender changed them and Britain forever Supreme Court ,1910 In the Supreme Court of the State of New York Appellate Division Third Judicial Department , Journal of the Senate of the State of New York ...
