Strategies In Learning And Using A Second Language:

Strategies in Learning and Using a Second Language Andrew D. Cohen, 2014-06-11 Strategies in Learning and Using a Second Language examines what it takes to achieve long term success in languages beyond the first language Distinguishing language learning from language use strategies Andrew D Cohen disentangles a morass of terminology to help the reader see what language strategies are and how they can enhance performance Particular areas of research examined in the book include links between the use of task specific strategies and language performance how multilinguals verbalise their thoughts during language learning and use strategies that learners use in test taking contexts In this fully revised and substantially rewritten second edition every chapter has been reworked with material either updated or replaced Entirely new material has also been developed based on examples of specific strategies supplied by actual learners mostly drawn from a website featuring these strategies in the learning of Spanish grammar Strategies in Learning and Using a Second language will be an invaluable resource for language teachers and researchers as well as for administrators of second language programmes and for students of applied linguistics

Language Learning Strategies in Independent Settings Stella Hurd, Tim Lewis, 2008-10-03 Language learning strategies have been a topic of research for roughly three decades Broadly speaking that research has focused on classroom tuition predominantly at secondary level Increasingly however language learning occurs in independent settings whether at distance on Institution Wide Language Programmes IWLPs or in virtual environments Success in independent language learning is achieved by autonomous individuals with a capacity for self regulation Yet we still know relatively little about the specific means they use to learn effectively whether in terms of the affective strategies they employ to sustain motivation the metacognitive strategies required for planning monitoring and evaluating their learning or the specific cognitive strategies applied to difficult learning tasks These are all discussed and evaluated in Language Learning Strategies in Independent Settings
