GmbH Fresenius University language English abstract This thesis aims to develop degrowth oriented business models for fashion brands that could not only bring competitive advantage to these organizations but also drive the achievement of the Sustainable Development Goals defined by the United Nations in 2015 The outcome of this thesis provides a range of design options and strategies that can be implemented by fashion brands in the degrowth framework combined within a custom buildable business model matrix An empirical research conducted with both qualitative and quantitative data assessed the developed business model matrix based on nine existing fashion organizations The results showed the existence of three observable business model archetypes presenting strong similarities with the proposed model however always limited to a very reductive approach of the degrowth economy The degrowth economy has long been undervalued by businesses considering prosperity without growth as an impossible match With the rising pressures imposed by climate change the new transformative challenges the fashion industry is facing and current shifts in consumers purchasing behaviors the degrowth economy debate appears as a relevant opportunity to initiate systemic change within the fashion industry This research highlights the need and relevance for the development of fashion business models using a more holistic approach of the degrowth economy now given possible thanks to the translation of degrowth concepts and ideas into implementable business strategies It suggests that fashion brands could get strong competitive advantages by following these recommendations and by acting as pioneers in a field that goes beyond the current understanding of sustainability in the fashion industry

Rethinking Corporate Governance Sven-Erik Sjöstrand, 2016-05-27 Rethinking Corporate Governance s extensive and insightful empirical investigation offers a radically new approach to corporate governance This ground breaking volume describes and analyzes the key nature based and actor based forces that ultimately determine corporate governance processes and long term corporate paths Generally such forces work in complex and intricate interplays that to a large extent vary among corporations A theory of shareholder governance is developed and integrated into the established and more comprehensive theory of corporate governance to create a revised theory of the corporation firm The new possibilities that this creates for explaining how processes develop and ultimately influence corporate paths are presented in depth Featuring conclusions based on an empirical material that is both rich and exclusive the book also contains extensive non anonymized materials from authentic corporate governance processes A general conclusion is that actions taken by individuals have a special status among those forces as they not only generate impact in themselves but also involve interpretations of the possible effects of all the other forces Among those actions the ones taken by the shareholders stand out as particularly decisive both for the governance processes as such and for how corporations develop over time Offering a degree of openness detail and realism that is hard to find in any other case based study this innovative and enlightening volume is essential for both academics and practitioners involved in corporate governance corporate strategy and the theory of the firm
