envelop it in the silence of a coffer in order that it may not appear Nevertheless he prophesies both its appearance and its success All this was fulfilled to the letter The author died in 1716 and the treatise was found by accident by one of the priests of his congregation at St Laurent sur Sevre in 1842 The existing superior was able to attest the handwriting as being that of the venerable founder and the autograph was sent to Rome to be examined in the process of canonisation All those who are likely to read this book love God and lament that they do not love Him more all desire something for His glory the spread of some good work the success of some devotion the coming of some good time One man has been striving for years to overcome a particular fault and has not succeeded Another mourns and almost wonders while he mourns that so few of his relations and friends have been converted to the faith One grieves that he has not devotion enough another that he has a cross to carry which is a peculiarly impossible cross to him while a third has domestic troubles and family unhappinesses which feel almost incompatible with his salvation and for all these things prayer appears to bring so little remedy But what is the remedy that is wanted What is the remedy indicated by God Himself If we may rely on the disclosures of the Saints it is an immense increase of devotion to our Blessed Lady but remember nothing short of an immense one
