Teaching World Politics Lev S. Gonick, Edward Weisband, 2020-01-29 In this volume scholars and teachers share ideas about new ways to teach history culture and theory as well as new topics such as gender information flows and discourse This book is the product of a series of roundtable discussions conducted under the auspices of the Annual Meetings of the International Studies Association At both the 1991 Meetings in Vancouver and the 1992 Meetings in Atlanta we were extremely gratified by the response to our roundtables on Teaching World Politics in the 1990s Teaching International Relations in a Time of Disruption Heather A. Smith, David J. Hornsby, 2021-03-01 This volume asks how we as International Relations scholars support our students and indeed each other to create classroom spaces that foster the critical curiosity and engagement required to understand and live in a world that feels dangerously disrupted In an era of globalization disruption and pandemic International Relations educators need to reflect upon how teaching helps constitute the discipline and position our students to contribute to the advancement of International Relations as a discipline and practice Through exploring innovative approaches to teaching and learning this volume ensures that International Relations keeps up with the contemporary needs of students and student learning and takes advantage of the opportunity to advance as a discipline now and in the future As we move through pivots online and transitions to remote learning in the midst of a pandemic the need for attention to student learning is only made more prescient and urgent Teaching International Relations Scott, James M., Carter, Ralph G., Jolliff Scott, Brandy, Lantis, Jeffrey S., 2021-08-27 This comprehensive guide captures important trends in international relations IR pedagogy paying particular attention to innovations in active learning and student engagement for the contemporary International Relations IR classroom Conference of American Teachers of International Law, 1914 The Teaching of International Politics Vernon Van Dyke, 1955 Teaching, 1921 The Teaching of English Alexander Francis Chamberlain, 1902 Teaching World Understanding Ralph Clausius Preston, 1955 *Proceedings of the ... Miller, Eszter Simon, 2015-02-27 With a focus on providing concrete teaching strategies for scholars the Handbook on Teaching and Learning in Political Science and International Relations blends both theory and practice in an accessible and clear manner In an effort to help faculty Pedagogical Journeys through World Politics Jamie Frueh, 2019-07-16 This edited volume is a collection of twenty three autobiographical narratives by successful teachers of global politics and international relations The diverse contributors from a variety of institutional contexts sub disciplines and countries describe their development as teachers articulate mission statements for their teaching and link both to pedagogical practices that exemplify their teaching philosophies Rather than provide specific recipes for authoritative techniques the essays empower readers as creative developers of their own approaches to teaching global politics They demonstrate the multiple ways that instructors have grounded deliberate pedagogical designs in a variety of deeper philosophical commitments and resources are provided to facilitate discussion and collaborative deliberation between groups of readers
