

The background of the cover is a complex, abstract composition. It features several vertical bands of color: a dark blue band on the far left, a light blue band, a wide red band, an orange band, and a light beige band on the right. Overlaid on these are various geometric shapes, including a large black circle at the top, a teal circle in the middle, and a red circle at the bottom right. Several vertical black lines of varying lengths are scattered across the page. Faint, semi-transparent musical notation, including staves and notes, is visible in the background, particularly in the lower half of the cover.
