The Bone People A Novel:

The Bone People Keri Hulme, 2005-04-01 Integrating both Maori myth and New Zealand reality The Bone People became the most successful novel in New Zealand publishing history when it appeared in 1984 Set on the South Island beaches of New Zealand a harsh environment the novel chronicles the complicated relationships between three emotional outcasts of mixed European and Maori heritage Kerewin Holmes is a painter and a loner convinced that to care for anything is to invite disaster Her isolation is disrupted one day when a six year old mute boy Simon breaks into her house The sole survivor of a mysterious shipwreck Simon has been adopted by a widower Maori factory worker Joe Gillayley who is both tender and horribly brutal toward the boy Through shifting points of view the novel reveals each character's thoughts and feelings as they struggle with the desire to connect and the fear of attachment Compared to the works of James Joyce in its use of indigenous language and portrayal of consciousness The Bone People captures the soul of New Zealand After twenty years it continues to astonish and enrich readers around the world

The Bone People Keri Hulme, 1985 At once a mystery a love story and an ambitious exploration of the zone where Maori and European New Zealand meet Booker Prize winning novel The Bone People is a powerful and unsettling tale saturated with violence and Maori spirituality

Imagination and the Creative Impulse in the New Literatures in English Maria Teresa Bindella, Geoffrey V. Davis, 1993 Imagination and the Creative Impulse in the New Literatures in English brings together the proceedings of a symposium organised by the editors at the University of Trento in 1990 At a time when the study of the post colonial literatures is gaining more widespread recognition scholars based mainly at universities in Italy and Germany were invited to address the manner in which writers are giving literary expression to the complexity of contemporary post colonial and multicultural societies and to consider from their differing perspectives on the new literatures central questions of formal experimentation linguistic innovation social and political commitment textual theory and cross culturality Focusing on such major writers such as Achebe Soyinka and Walcott as well as on lesser known figures such as Jack Davis Witi Ihimaera Rohinton Mistry and Manohar Malgonkar the contributors take up many themes characteristic of the new literatures the challenge posed to traditional authority the expression of national identity the role of literature in the liberation struggle modes of literary practice in multicultural societies the relationship of the new literatures in English to that of the former metropolitan centre and the complex intertextuality characterizing much of the literary production of post colonial societies

The Circle & the Spiral Eva Rask Knudsen, 2021-11-01 In Aboriginal and M ori literature the circle and the spiral are the symbolic metaphors for a never ending journey of discovery and rediscovery The journey itself with its indigenous perspectives and sense of orientation is the most significant act of cultural recuperation The present study outlines the fields of indigenous writing in Australia and New Zealand in the crucial period between the mid 1980s and the early 1990s particularly eventful years in which postcolonial theory attempted to centre the margins and indigenous writers were keen to escape the particular centering offered in search of other positions more in tune with their creative sensibilities Indigenous writing relinquished its narrative preference for social realism in favour of traversing old territory in new spiritual ways roots converted into routes Standard postcolonial readings of indigenous texts often overwrite the difference they seek to locate because critical orthodoxy predetermines what difference can be Critical evaluations still tend to eclipse the ontological grounds of Aboriginal and M ori traditions and specific ways of moving through and behaving in cultural landscapes and social contexts Hence the corrective applied in Circles and Spirals to look for locally and culturally specific tracks and traces that lead in other directions than those catalogued by postcolonial convention This agenda is pursued by means of searching enquiries into the historical anthropological political and cultural determinants of the present state of Aboriginal and M ori writing principally fiction Independent yet interrelated exemplary analyses of works by Keri Hulme and Patricia Grace and Mudrooroo and Sam Watson Australia provided the thick description that illuminates the author s central theses with comparative side glances at Witi Ihimaera Heretaunga Pat Baker and Alan Duff New Zealand and Archie Weller and Sally Morgan Australia

The Pain of Unbelonging Sheila Collingwood-Whittick,2007 Beyond the obvious and enduring socio economic ravages it unleashed on indigenous cultures white settler colonization in Australasia also inflicted profound damage on the collective psyche of both of the communities that inhabited the contested space of the colonial world The acute sense of alienation that colonization initially provoked in the colonized and colonizing populations of Australia and New Zealand has recent studies indicate developed into an endemic existential pathology Evidence of the psychological fallout from the trauma of geographical deracination cultural disorientation and ontological destabilization can be found not only in the state of anomie and self destructive patterns of behaviour that now characterize the lives of indigenous Australian and Maori peoples but also in the perpetually faltering identity discourse and cultural rootlessness of the present descendants of the countries Anglo Celtic settlers It is with the literary expression of this persistent condition of alienation that the essays gathered in the present volume are concerned Covering a heterogeneous selection of contemporary Australasian literature what these critical studies convincingly demonstrate is that more than two hundred years after the process of colonisation was set in motion the experience that Germaine Greer has dubbed the pain of unbelonging continues unabated constituting a dominant thematic concern in the writing produced today by Australian and New Zealand authors
