The Comfort Of Strangers:

The Comfort of Strangers Gage McWeeny, 2016 This text argues for a new understanding of the relation between nineteenth century realist literary form and the socially dense environments of modernity

The Comfort of Strangers Ian McEwan, 2011-02-08 A twisted relationship between two couples reaches a terrible climax in this novel by the New York Times bestselling author of Machines Like Me Colin and Mary are lovers on holiday in Italy their relationship becoming increasingly problematic as they become increasingly alienated from one and other They move from place to place in this foreign land but seemingly without aim or purpose seemingly bored and without attachment Then they meet a man named Robert and his disabled wife Caroline Colin and Mary seem happy for the diversion happy to meet another couple that takes their focus off of each other for a while But things become strange when they attempt to leave Robert and Caroline insist that they stay with them for a while longer While Mary and Colin do rediscover an erotic attraction to each other during this time they also find that their relationship with Robert and Caroline is taking a dreadful and horrific turn in this fine novel by the Booker Prize winning author of Saturday and On Chesil Beach New Statesman McEwan perfectly captures the thrill of travel when one is divorced from familiar surroundings and the chance of something unusual and out of character seems possible Of course this being a McEwan fiction the possibility is a brutal truth about how people find love in extreme ways The Daily Beast

The Comfort of Strangers Folajinmi Olabode Adisa, 1996 The Comfort of Strangers gives detailed information on the background to the Rwandan refugee problem and a vivid portrayal of the effects of the mass exodus of Rwandans into Tanzania Uganda Burundi and Zaire The global community has over the past eighty years put in place an international refugee regime to regularize the status and provide for the control of stateless people ail over the world Although host communities may initially open their doors to large numbers of people fleeing from their homelands the long term impact on the host countries is usually devastating and not often taken into account This includes environmental degradation diminishing food security and pressure on the social and health sectors 3rd security risks These lead to sympathy fatigue and resentment This book embodies an in depth report made for UNCHS Habitat on the Rwandan refugee crisis and makes recommendations for its resolution including compensation for host communities to enable them restore basic infrastructures and increase administrative capacity Dr Adisa also calls for a more efficient and humane treatment of the refugees and for their assisted resettlement

Ian McEwan Irena Książopolska, 2024-04-30 This book offers a discussion of seven canonical novels by Ian McEwan The Cement Garden The Comfort of Strangers The Child in Time The Innocent Black Dogs Atonement On Chesil Beach introducing radical new readings which are offered not as ultimate and conclusive solutions of the textual puzzles but as possibilities to engage with the text creatively to enrich the critical consensus and restore interpretative freedom to the readers This project formulates a strategy of inclusive reading an approach to the text that does not seek to reduce it to a single interpretation and yet is comprehensively informed through the analysis of the primary text critical discussion authorial comments and the context of the composition Each reading demonstrates the metafictional structure of the texts indicating that McEwan s works may be treated as invitations to roam within their worlds examining the multiple frames of their structure and the meanings generated thereby All the chapters attend to submerged repressed or deliberately masked voices The Cement Garden is seen as a multi layered dream with a shifting hierarchy of dreamers The Comfort of Strangers is viewed as an inverted metafiction with insubstantial characters corrupting more complex heroes The Child in Time is read as Stephen s book written for his dead daughter The Innocent as a memory narrative of Leonard who refuses to notice Maria s role as a spy In Black Dogs the over exposure of unreliability is studied as a screen for personal trauma in the analysis of Atonement Briony s claim to authorship is questioned and Cecilia is suggested as an alternative narrative agent Finally examining On Chesil Beach both characters voices are reconstructed in search of the superior narrative power which in the end is seen to be elusive as the text seeks to undermine the hierarchy of voices

The Drama of the Double Katherine H. Burkman,2016-04-29 This book explores the way in which doubling takes place in several novels films and dramas primarily focusing on modern drama and exploring how five Greek myths Oedipus Narcissus Dionysus Orestes and Demeter inform the literature Taking a psychological mythical approach this book explores the inner divisions that lead to boundary loss and the search for the self that may lead to boundaries found The contention of the book is that the oedipal search for self has been replaced in modern literature by individuals caught up in a narcissistic culture Katherine H Burkman explores plays by Aeschylus Sophocles Euripides Henrik Ibsen Eugene O Neill Samuel Beckett Harold Pinter David Mamet Sam Shepard Marsha Norman and Will Eno
