

Communicative Arts and Cultural Continuity

This distinction between High-Low / “Fine” versus “Commercial” art merits comment.

- As Buruma recently observed, “even court painters of the Kano School made little distinction between decorative and fine art.” (NYR, June 23, 2005:14)
- The same could be said in other (and all) cultural realms in Japanese cultural communications: where a tendency to separate high from low was not strictly adhered to – even prior to Modernism.

Certainly, such melding is characteristic both of ukiyo-e and advertising.
