Tricks Twenty Five Encounters:

Tricks Renaud Camus,1996 This is a collection of 25 tales of sexual encounters celebrating a type of sexual energy and freedom that has been lost to gay men since the AIDS epidemic began Backward Glances Mark W. Turner,2003

Focusing upon gay street life in London and New York Mark Turner presents this gay urban history of male street cruising

Writing the Modern City Sarah Edwards,Jonathan Charley,2012-03-12 Literary texts and buildings have always represented space narrated cultural and political values and functioned as sites of personal and collective identity In the twentieth century new forms of narrative have represented cultural modernity political idealism and architectural innovation Writing the Modern City explores the diverse and fascinating relationships between literature architecture and modernity and considers how they have shaped the world today This collection of thirteen original essays examines the ways in which literature and architecture have shaped a range of recognisably modern identities It focuses on the cultural connections between prose narratives the novel short stories autobiography crime and science fiction and a range of urban environments from the city apartment and river to the colonial house and the utopian city It explores how the themes of memory nation and identity have been represented in both literary and architectural works in the aftermath of early twentieth century conflict how the cultural movements of modernism and postmodernism have affected notions of canonicity and genre in the creation of books and buildings and how and why literary and architectural narratives are influenced by each other s formal properties and styles The book breaks new ground in its exclusive focus on modern narrative and urban space The essays examine texts and spaces that have both unsettled traditional definitions of literature and architecture and reflected and shaped modern identities sexual domestic professional and national It is essential reading for students and researchers of literature cultural studies cultural geography art history and architectural history Out of the Closet, Into the Archives

Amy L. Stone,Jaime Cantrell,2015-11-20 The first book to focus on the experience of LGBT archival research Out of the Closet Into the Archives takes readers inside the experience of how it feels to do queer archival research and queer research in the archive The archive much like the closet exposes various levels of public and privateness recognition awareness refusal impulse disclosure framing silence cultural intelligibility each mediated and determined through subjective insider outsider ways of knowing The contributors draw on their experiences conducting research in disciplines such as sociology African American studies English communications performance studies anthropology and women s and gender studies These essays challenge scholars to engage with their affective experience of being in the archive illuminating how the space of the archive requires a different kind of deeply personal embodied research Forthcoming Books Rose Army,1996-06 Encounter
