Vatican II Commence:

History of Vatican II Giuseppe Alberigo, Joseph A. Komonchak, 1995 This third volume of the History of Vatican II describes the period during which the Second Vatican Council began to assume its mature and distinct character With the succession of Pope Paul VI to Pope John XXIII the Council had a new head With the revisions of texts accomplished during the first intersession the council had a new agenda more in line with the desires of the majority that had emerged during the first period With the appointment of four Moderators the Council had a new leadership The ecumenical commitment of the Council became visible not only in the discussion of a decree on ecumenism but in the visit of Paul VI to the Holy Land During the second intersession the work of the Council continued the most important features of which were the beginnings of the liturgical reform the revision of the major texts still to be considered or voted on and a plan to reduce many other texts to simple sets of propositions that was designed to make it possible for the Council to end with the third period

The Churches and Social Order in Nineteenth- and Twentieth-Century Canada Michael Gauvreau, Ollivier Hubert, 2011-05-01 By examining education charity community discipline the relationship between clergy and congregations and working class religion the contributors shift the field of religious history into the realm of the socio cultural This novel perspective reveals that the Christian churches remained dynamic and popular in English and French Canada as well as among immigrants well into the twentieth century

Soldiers of God in a Secular World Sarah Shortall, 2021-10-19 A revelatory account of the nouvelle th ologie a clerical movement that revitalized the Catholic Church s role in twentieth century French political life Secularism has been a cornerstone of French political culture since 1905 when the republic formalized the separation of church and state At times the barrier of secularism has seemed impenetrable stifling religious actors wishing to take part in political life Yet in other instances secularism has actually nurtured movements of the faithful Soldiers of God in a Secular World explores one such case that of the nouvelle th ologie or new theology Developed in the interwar years by Jesuits and Dominicans the nouvelle th ologie reimagined the Church s relationship to public life encouraging political activism engaging with secular philosophy and inspiring doctrinal changes adopted by the Second Vatican Council in the 1960s Nouveaux th ologiens charted a path between the old alliance of throne and altar and secularism s demand for the privatization of religion Envisioning a Church in but not of the public sphere Catholic thinkers drew on theological principles to intervene in political questions while claiming to remain at arm s length from politics proper Sarah Shortall argues that this counter politics was central to the mission of the nouveaux th ologiens by recoding political statements in the ostensibly apolitical language of doctrine priests were able to enter into debates over fascism and communism democracy and human rights colonialism and nuclear war This approach found its highest expression during the Second World War when the nouveaux theologiens led the spiritual resistance against Nazism Claiming a powerful public voice they collectively forged a new role for the Church amid the momentous political shifts of the twentieth century History of Vatican II Giuseppe Alberigo, Joseph A. Komonchak, 1995 First of five volumes employing dozens of scholars from around the world to provide the definitive history of the most important event in Catholic history in the 20th century Bulletin for Contextual Theology in Southern Africa & Africa, 1997 A manual of the ancient history of the East to the commencement of the Median wars Francois Lenormant, 1871 Orthodoxy, Process and Product Mathijs Lamberigts, Lieven Boeve, Terrence Merrigan, 2009 From 2002-2008 three research groups from the departments of systematic theology and church history at the Faculty of Theology K U Leuven joined forces in an interdisciplinary project entitled Orthodoxy Process and Product The aim of the project was a church historical and systematic theological study of the determination of truth in church and theology The present volume contains contributions from all senior members of the project research group The contributions are the result of a research conference in 2006 in which both the question of the nature of truth as such and the process of determination of theological truth was approached from many different angles Thus questions from philosophy systematic theology and history of church and theology are discussed including such themes as the implications of various philosophical theories of truth for theology the question of religious pluralism and its ramifications for theological truth claims theological truth claims in the thought of Gregory of Nyssa Augustine John Driedo and at the Second Vatican Council In addition the meta question of the relationship between the historical and the systematic aspects of theological truth and the way in which the historical and systematic theological disciplines interact play an important role in this volume Historical Abstracts, 1995 Scrutinizing the Signs of the Times in the Light of the Gospel Johan Verstraeten, 2007 Gaudium et spes Pastoral Constitution on the Church in the Modern World was promulgated on December 7 1965 It mirrors a new spirit of openness of the Catholic Church to the world as well as a new historical consciousness based on a self understanding of the Catholic Church as linked with mankind and its history by the deepest bonds GS 1 This historical consciousness resulted in a method of social discernment which inspired by John XXIII was articulated by Gaudium et spes in terms of scrutinizing the signs of the times and of interpreting them in the light of the gospel GS 4 Conscious of the need to revisit the pastoral constitution of Vatican II the Centre for Catholic Social Thought at the Catholic University of Leuven has organised two international expert seminars The first expert seminar 6-7 September 2003 was rather explorative and focused on the relevance of catholic social thought in its actual context with special attention paid to the signs of the times in an era of globalisation The discussion on the contemporary signs of the times revealed the necessity to clarify the theoretical and practical implications of the methodology of social discernment and particularly of a social hermeneutic in the light of the gospel This became the theme of a second expert seminar Leuven Louvain la Neuve 9-11 September 2004 the discussions of which are the background to this book
