The Jew Józef Ignacy Kraszewski, 1890 On a warm afternoon in the autumn of 1860 the best or rather the only inn of Sestri Ponente was full of people Firpo the host of the Albergo e Trattoria della Grotta was little accustomed to such a crowd except on Sundays and f te days As this was only a simple Thursday his sunburnt cheeks reflected a smile of satisfaction Sestri Ponente is situated an hour s distance from Genoa on the sea shore in vicinanza del mare and on the grand route from Savona to Nice Sestri beside dock yards for the construction of small merchant vessels which is its chief source of wealth possesses also a fine beach where it is possible to bathe in safety It has this one superiority over Genoa la superba which lacks sea bathing Genoa has all else even her trees seem dwarfed near her stately edifices she has a magnificent harbour and if one is determined to bathe in the sea he can hire a boat to take him some distance from the quay where the water is not full of all sorts of d bris Once in clear water a rope is tied around his waist and he can seat himself on the steps fixed to the back of the boat If he slip the honest boatman draws him out of the sea by the rope at the end of which he looks like a new species of fish suspended on a hook Those who dislike this method are at liberty to bathe in the saltwater of the port or in the marble bath houses of the Piazza Sarzana but to bathe where the beach is more or less rocky one must abandon Genoa for the fashionable Livourne the charming Spezia or the modest Sestri The wealthier classes congregate at the former resorts Sestri is patronized more by quiet people who wish to economize who prefer a peaceful life to the distractions of the gay world and the fresh sea breeze to the feverish gayety and gossip of a crowded watering place

Veiled Promises Carol S. Lacey, 2025-02 Labeled from childhood as worthless stamped as evil by a birthmark and assigned a bleak future by the family who spurns her Eunice faces a life with little prospects for happiness or a fulfilled life Farmed out at thirteen to earn her father money she experiences rejection afresh at her first encounter with hope From a promise of love and family that falters she is led into a life of disappointment with people and circumstances beyond her control Despite compromises endured to withstand a world in which she finds no place can her compassionate heart and a determination to survive be enough to propel her into the belief she has value worth fighting for Will a tentative promise of lasting hope overcome her despair I invite you to join Eunice on her journey to revive the deep need of her soul and quell the tangled roots of rejection www CarolLacey com
