Vision Of Hope:

Visions of Hope Kevin Ahern, 2013 Fifty years after the Second Vatican Council emerging theologians are in a unique position to offer hopeful visions for the next fifty years of the Church in light of the pressing internal and external challenges it faces today Rooted in the texts of Vatican II and a commitment to the church Visions of Hope brings together the research of leading young scholars around five important topics dialogue ecclesiology ethics liturgy and ministry These ideas represent the future shape of the Church because they are from the theologians who are planting the seminal ideas of Church

Vision Of Hope Marilou Flinkman, 2013-02-01 Hope has not time for God Why should she When her mother was dying God didn't answer Hope's prayers Now Hope immerses herself in science where the world is concrete and definite unwilling to entertain faith ever again Hope is dismayed to find that Rick the interesting new man in her life considers faith an important part of his existence No matter how much she enjoys Rick's company she determines he cannot be the man for her Never again will she trust God the way she did before her mother's death But the more Hope comes to know Rick the harder he is to resist And when she meets his family she finds herself falling in love with them as well Hope's lonely heart longs to be part of this family forever but that might require her to trust in God once again
