Welcome Retirement:

Men in Transition Kenneth Solomon, 2013-11-11 Every year the few hundred members of the Committees Task Forces and Councils of the American Psychiatric Association meet in Washington D C to conduct their business They deliberate on a wide variety of issues encompassed in the activities of each group The psychiatrists constituting this mixed and somewhat elite group include some of the better known and promising people in the profession which makes the plenary session and cocktail party good occasions to meet old friends and to make new ones Several years ago one of us N B L attended this gathering as a member of a soon to be defunct group the Committee Liaison with the American College of Physicians and met Ann Chappell a member of the Task Force on Women We were soon joined by Richard Grant Ann impressed us with the work her group was doing on issues surrounding the Women s Movement as it relates to patients and the changing roles of the early 1970s She was struck by the fact that although some women had been very active in this endeavor nobody in American psychiatry was addressing issues which are arising in men as a result of the changing roles of women in society Dick and Norm were moved by what she said and decided that they would make an effort to gather together people interested in the issue of the changing roles of males in society at the oncoming meeting of the American Psychiatric Association

Aging and Old Age Richard A. Posner, 1995-12-18 Exploding the myth that the United States is on the brink of gerontological disaster this provocative and revealing book paints a surprisingly rich and unsentimental portrait of the millions of elderly people in the U S and offers fresh insight into a wide range of social and political issues relating to the elderly including health care crime social security and discrimination
