

the "garment of camel's hair and the leathern girdle." He is a valuable factor in the cause of Christ in every circle of it. It is true the King did without him for a long time, but we believe that his history from now on forever will be that "the Lord hath need of him."

ROBERT HENRY JONES.—He is a son of Henry and Anne Jones, Pen-y-groes, Llanllyfni, Arvon, Wales. He came to America in March, 1890, to the city of Chicago and after that to Minneapolis the same year. He was brought up a slate quarryman. He received an education in the British School; in the Clynog Grammar School; in Macalester College, St. Paul; and he will be graduating a B.A. from Ripon College, Wis., next June. He started to preach in Minneapolis Sept. 11, 1892, and was received as a regular preacher the next summer. He came to stay in Wisconsin in Sept., 1895, to study at Ripon College. In time he put his letter in Salem Church, Oshkosh, and he was received as a member of the Presbytery. This young brother is one of the most likeable ministers of our state and will probably do a great work with the Gospel.

REV. DAVID DAVIES, D.D.—(The Committee appointed the Rev. John R. Jones to write a few notes about the Editor of the book, which are as follows): As a man of influence, who spent about 32 years in the Oshkosh vicinity and won for himself a position of distinction in the kingdom of Christ the Rev. David Davies deserves a special place among the ministers of the locality. He was born May 2, 1845, in the Prion neighborhood, near Denbigh, North Wales. He is a son of Ioan and Elizabeth Davies (3, page 67), of the place mentioned, one of seven brothers, all living in America, and two of them deacons with the Calvinistic Methodists. There was a deep impression of the claims of Christ in his heart since he was a child. He felt an inclination to undertake the work of the ministry before he was 13; and he received encouragement to do this in Wales from the best man in his church. He delayed at that time because he did not consider he had had preparation worthy of the honored calling.

In 1865 he emigrated with his parents to America, settling near Oshkosh. He followed the carpenter's trade for some years, with devotion and skill; yet with his mind on the ministry all the time. He began his educational course in Ripon College in January, 1868; but he could attend only irregularly at first. In June, 1877, he won the degree of B.A. with honors. He then spent a year in Lane Seminary and received a certificate of high grades in 11 out of 14 studies in the theological course. He received the degree of M.A. from Ripon in June, 1887, when he delivered an able and acceptable address there. In 1898 the same college honored itself by honoring him with the degree of D.D.

He started to preach in Bethesda in October, 1871, the same time as his friend William Foulkes, D.D., who today stands among the leading Presbyterian ministers in Kansas. May 21, 1872 the Rev. Rees Evans and Mr. John E. Jenkins were appointed to take the vote on his case as a candidate, which was wholly favorable. In Bethesda Sept. 24th that year he and the late Thomas J. Davies were received into the Presbytery as preachers. At a Convention in Peniel June 13, 1878, he and Rev. John R. Jones were received as preachers into that circle.

He began his pastoral work in the Oshkosh Church in March, 1877,

Welsh In Wisconsin:

Welsh in Wisconsin Phillips G. Davies, 2013-03-28 Between 1840 and 1890 many Welsh looked to Wisconsin for relief where they could purchase inexpensive productive land With large Welsh landowners controlling most of the arable land in Wales and Corn Laws which prohibited importation of cheap food domestic food prices increased dramatically and left the typical tenant farming family with fields full of grain but empty cupboards Once in Wisconsin the newcomers kept to themselves maintained their native language and national traditions and worshipped together in close knit communities This addition to the People of Wisconsin series weaves period letters from the Owen family and Private John Jones who served in the Union army in the Civil War into the narration Welsh in Wisconsin also contains anecdotes from early immigrant life and photographs depicting Welsh churches in Wisconsin
