World My Wilderness:

The World My Wilderness Rose Macaulay, 2018-02-08 Poignant and inspiring SUNDAY TELEGRAPH The World My Wilderness had a powerful effect on me as a young reader HERMIONE LEE GUARDIAN An elegiac evocative depiction of the aftermath of the Second World War PARIS REVIEW It is 1946 and the people of France and England are facing the aftermath of the War Sent by her beautiful indolent mother to England Barbary Deniston is thrown into the care of her distinguished father and conventional stepmother Barbary has spent her childhood years in the sunshine of Provence During the War she ran wild with the Maquis experiencing collaboration betrayal and resistance In peacetime the young woman has been taken away from all she knows and placed into the drab austerity of post war London life Confused and unhappy she discovers the flowering bomb craters around St Paul s Cathedral Here in the bombed heart of London with the outcasts living on the edge of society she finds an echo of the wilderness of Provence and is forced to confront the wilderness within herself The World My Wilderness Rose Macaulay (romanière)., 1950 The Eco poetics of War Sylvain Belluc, Isabelle Brasme, Guillaume Tanguy, 2024-12-30 The Eco poetics of War explores the interrelationality of human and nonhuman entities in the context of conflict as recorded in literature and culture This collection of essays demonstrates the specific and fertile role of literature in representations of war as it foregrounds the manifold ways in which the borders between human and nonhuman including flora fauna and technology become porous thus questioning traditional onto epistemological and ethical categories Bringing together British American and postcolonial studies The Eco poetics of War covers a variety of historical periods geographical areas and literary genres Interdisciplinary in its outlook it intertwines war studies ecocriticism literary theory philosophy and cultural studies By analyzing the stylistic and discursive strategies devised by writers to translate the sensory experience of the battlefield the contributors shed light on the unique capacity of literature to foreground the entanglement of human and nonhuman in the context of armed conflict and thus unveil an eco poetics of war This collection will interest scholars of literature specialists of war studies and ecocriticism and any reader interested in such issues such as ecowar ecocide the Anthropocene or environmental justice It can inspire interdisciplinary teaching or research projects especially in the current context of global environmental crisis "The" World My Wilderness Rose Macaulay, 1983

Nothing Happened Susan A. Crane, 2021-01-19 The past is what happened History is what we remember and write about that past the narratives we craft to make sense out of our memories and their sources But what does it mean to look at the past and to remember that nothing happened Why might we feel as if nothing is the way it was This book transforms these utterly ordinary observations and redefines Nothing as something we have known and can remember Nothing has been a catch all term for everything that is supposedly uninteresting or is just not there It will take some possibly considerable mental adjustment before we can see Nothing as Susan A Crane does here with a capital n But Nothing has actually been happening all along As Crane shows in her witty and provocative discussion Nothing is nothing less than fascinating When

Nothing has changed but we think that it should have we might call that injustice when Nothing has happened over a long slow period of time we might call that boring Justice and boredom have histories So too does being relieved or disappointed when Nothing happens for instance when a forecasted end of the world does not occur and millennial movements have to regroup By paying attention to how we understand Nothing to be happening in the present what it means to know Nothing or to do Nothing we can begin to ask how those experiences will be remembered Susan A Crane moves effortlessly between different modes of seeing Nothing drawing on visual analysis and cultural studies to suggest a new way of thinking about history By remembering how Nothing happened or how Nothing is the way it was or how Nothing has changed we can recover histories that were there all along Underground Writing Dave Welsh,2010-01-01 The purpose of this book is to explore the ways in which the London Underground Tube was mapped by a number of writers from George Gissing to Virginia Woolf From late Victorian London to the end of the World War II underground writing created an imaginative world beneath the streets of London The real subterranean railway was therefore re enacted in number of ways in writing including as Dantean Underworld or hell as gateway to a utopian future as psychological looking glass or as place of safety and security The book is a chronological study from the opening of the first underground in the 1860s to its role in WW2 Each chapter explores perspectives on the underground in a number of writers starting with George Gissing in the 1880s moving through the work of H G Wells and into the writing of the 1920s and 1930s including Virginia Woolf and George Orwell It concludes with its portrayal in the fiction poetry and art including Henry Moore of WW2 The approach takes a broadly cultural studies perspective crossing the boundaries of transport history literature and London urban studies It draws mainly on fiction but also uses poetry art journals postcards and posters to illustrate It links the actual underground trains tracks and stations to the metaphorical world of underground writing and places the writing in a social political context

Modernist Women Writers and Spirituality Elizabeth Anderson, Andrew Radford, Heather Walton, 2016-12-22

Concentrating on female modernists specifically this volume examines spiritual issues and their connections to gender during the modernist period Scholarly inquiry surrounding women writers and their relation to what Wassily Kandinsky famously hoped would be an Epoch of the Great Spiritual has generated myriad contexts for closer analysis including feminist theology literary and religious history psychoanalysis queer and trauma theory This book considers canonical authors such as Virginia Woolf while also attending to critically overlooked or poorly understood figures such as H D Mary Butts Rose Macaulay Evelyn Underhill Christopher St John and Dion Fortune With wide ranging topics such as the formally innovative poetry of Stevie Smith and Hope Mirrlees to Evelyn Underhill's mystical treatises and correspondence this collection of essays aims to grant voices to the mostly forgotten female voices of the modernist period showing how spirituality played a vital role in their lives and writing British Literature in Transition, 1940-1960: Postwar Gill Plain, 2019 Examines debates central to postwar British culture showing the pressures of reconstruction and the mutual implication of war and peace Wastepaper

Modernism Joseph Elkanah Rosenberg, 2021-04-16 From Henry James fascination with burnt manuscripts to destroyed books in the fiction of the Blitz from junk mail in the work of Elizabeth Bowen to bureaucratic paperwork in Vladimir Nabokov modern fiction is littered with images of tattered and useless paper that reveal an increasingly uneasy relationship between literature and its own materials over the course of the twentieth century Wastepaper Modernism argues that these images are vital to our understanding of modernism disclosing an anxiety about textual matter that lurks behind the desire for radically different modes of communication At the same time that writers were becoming infatuated with new technologies like the cinema and the radio they were also being haunted by their own pages Having its roots in the late nineteenth century but finding its fullest constellation in the wake of the high modernist experimentation with novelistic form wastepaper modernism arises when fiction imagines its own processes of transmission and representation breaking down When the descriptive capabilities of the novel exhaust themselves the wastepaper modernists picture instead the physical decay of the book s own primary matter Bringing together book history and media theory with detailed close reading Wastepaper Modernism reveals modernist literature s dark sense of itself as a ruin in the making

Introduction to The World My Wilderness William Plomer, 1968 The Law of the Land Emerson Hough, 1904 A romance of the Mississippi Delta involving the most vital expression of the Southerner s view of the race problem that has yet appeared in fiction The author describes the black volcano over which white Southerners live in an intensely realistic manner His knowledge of the white man s burden his keen descriptions of Northern mis apprehension equal his tremendous power as a story teller and his elemental sense of humor Remembering Rose Macaulay Amber Dawn Hainline, 2000 The Century ,1891 The New Republic ,1951 The Century Illustrated Monthly Magazine ,1891 The Booklist ,1950 Letters of the Rev. Samuel Rutherford Samuel Rutherford, 1891 The Listener ,1950 The Chapel Hymn Book Edwin Francis Hatfield, 1873 The New Congregational Hymn Book Congregational Union of England and Wales, 1859
