World Yearbook of Education 2018 Julie McLeod, Noah W. Sobe, Terri Seddon, 2017-12-01 This latest volume in the World Yearbook of Education Series considers changing space times of education by asking how they become unevenly textured as our worlds globalise horizons shift and familiar points of reference melt and are remade Acknowledging the reach of economic and cultural change digital communication geopolitics and persistent inequalities the chapters trace processes that are re making education and societies Examining the depth of their impact on practices methods and concepts reveals the significance of knowledge building and socially embedded forms of reasoning in emerging patterns of educational governance pedagogic and policy reforms as well as in lived understandings of self and social worlds The organisation of the collection into three sections Making Spaces Troubling Temporalities and Mobility and Contexts begins to map out an ambitious project It calls on education researchers and professionals to write the present as history by grasping the socio spatial historical and political dimensions and effects that frame form and filter the educational present This research calls for a revitalised historical sociology and novel forms of comparative education that can provide productive insights inform creative problem solving and suggest practical directions for education This agenda recognises the unevenness of educational space times the making of education as a social institution the persistence and effects of social embeddedness eventful space situated knowledge and geosocial thinking the present as history and multiple temporalities in education different registers of transformation that become visible through lenses such as identity work citizenship and mobility The World Yearbook of Education 2018 continues the project of compiling worldwide research on globalising education These volumes offer a powerful commentary on how and why space times of education are changing and emphasise the importance of forms of knowledge that materialise categories of professionals policies and practices This volume will be of interest to academics professionals and policymakers in education and social policy and also to scholars who engage in historical studies of education and debates about the socio material formations that contribute to educational inequalities and dynamics of difference

This Is a Picture and Not the World Joseph Natoli, 2012-02-01 In This Is a Picture and Not the World Joseph Natoli employs the lingua franca of film itself screenplay dialogue as well as the more recent form of the political blog to present a hyperreal account of popular film as both a creator and a reflector of our post 9 11 mass psyche Drawing on both classic and contemporary film examples the book also offers a quasihistory of film genres including science fiction the western film noir and screwball comedy emphasizing how these genres have been shaken up recontextualized recombined turned self reflexive and parodied over the past couple of decades Taken together these satirical parodies of screenplays and blogs reveal and perform how our very gaze has shifted from modern to postmodern from a direct view of the world to a filtered one

Fantasy Newsletter, 1983 The Soul Of The World Christopher Dewdney, 2012-07-10 Blending science with an evocative narrative Christopher Dewdney takes readers on a fascinating journey to the most elusive and fluid of the dimensions lying within human perception time As he did with the hours between dusk and dawn in Acquainted with the Night Dewdney unlocks all of today tomorrow and yesterday through his wide ranging narrative He shows how time has been imagined through the ages in mythology philosophy art and science answering the questions that have engaged inquiring minds since before recorded history Why does time flow in only one direction Is time travel actually possible Why does time go faster the higher you are from the earth s surface Spun out across the seasons of a year and through encounters with friends family and strangers Soul of the World offers extraordinary insights into the nature of time and its influence on us
