Worlds of IF Ejler Jakobsson, Judy Lynn Benjamin, 1970 God and Necessity Brian Leftow, 2012-09-06 Brian Leftow offers a theist theory of necessity and possibility and a new sort of argument for God's existence. He argues that necessities of logic and mathematics are determined by God's nature but that it is events in God's mind. His imagination and choice that account for necessary truths about concrete creatures Deontic Logic: Introductory and Systematic Readings R. Hilpinen, 2012-12-06

Thoughts Stephen Yablo, 2008-11-27 In these twelve essays Stephen Yablo presents a modern day examination of Cartesian themes in the metaphysics of mind including mental physical dualism, the possibility of disembodied existence, conceivability as a guide to possibility, the nature of solipsistic content, and how the mind affects the course of physical events.

Design Layout F J Bergmann, Proofreader emeritus Pedro Iniguez God and Eternity James C. Barlow, 2009. What exactly is Time? Time has often been counterpoised by the notion of Eternity, as just that place wherever it is that is timeless. Recently, some physicists have sought to comprehend the universe as just one among many, or has denied the existence of Time outright. Through a use of Friedrich Nietzsche's thought of the Eternal Recurrence of All Things, once made compatible with Christian orthodoxy's notion of time and eternity, when combined with the latest in modern physics, the author posits here a new theory of Time that can account for human freedom in the midst of a deterministic world while at the same time explaining the Uncertainty Principle and how Reality became what it is. With Time given ontological priority all of our suspicions about lack of objectivity in scientific method are revealed as justified while the hitherto indecipherable nature of the cosmos and the role a Deity might have in it are explained God and Eternity is a brilliant intellectual tour de force that puts natural theology on an equal footing with post modern wonderment and enlightenment at an historical moment when a host of crucial questions are being asked anew JAMES BARLOW is Associate Professor of Philosophy at St Andrew s College and Seminary Lexington North Carolina and a Mathematics instructor at Nunavut Arctic College in Canada He has studied and taught in the Philippines and Alaska in the United States He currently lives in Iqaluit on South Baffin Island capital of the territory of Nunavut Canada Worlds of If,1973 Worlds of If Science Fiction ,1967 The Word ,1910 “The” Katha Sarit Sagara Or Ocean of the Streams of Story Somadeva,1884

Counterfactuals and Probability Moritz Schulz,2017-01-19 Moritz Schulz explores counterfactual thought and language what would have happened if things had gone a different way Counterfactual questions may concern large scale derivations what would have happened if Nixon had launched a nuclear attack or small scale evaluations of minor derivations what would have happened if I had decided to join a different profession A common impression which receives a thorough defence in the book is that oftentimes we find it impossible to know what would have happened However this does not mean that we are completely at a loss we are typically capable of evaluating counterfactual questions probabilistically we can say what would have been likely or unlikely to happen Schulz describes these probabilistic ways of evaluating counterfactual questions and turns the data into a novel account of the workings of counterfactual thought Essays in the Metaphysics of Modality

Alvin Plantinga,2003-03-27 Perhaps no one has done more in the last 30 years to advance thinking in the metaphysics of modality than has Alvin Plantinga Collected here are some of his most important essays on this influential subject Dating back from the late 1960 s to the present they chronicle the development of Plantinga s thoughts about some of the most fundamental issues in metaphysics what is the nature of abstract objects like possible worlds properties propositions and such phenomena Are there possible but non actual objects Can objects that do not exist exemplify properties Plantinga gives thorough and penetrating answers to all of these questions and many others This volume contains some of the best work in metaphysics from the past 30 years and will remain a source of critical contention and keen interest among philosophers of metaphysics and philosophical logic for years to come Performance Epistemology Miguel Ángel Fernández

Vargas,2016 Performance based epistemology conceives the normativity involved in epistemic evaluation as a special case of a pattern of evaluation that can be applied to any domain where there are agents that carry out performances with an aim This volume presents new essays by leading epistemologists on the foundations and applications of this approach

Religion, Neuroscience and the Self Patrick McNamara,2019-12-23 The purpose of this book is to use neuroscience discoveries concerning religious experiences the Self and personhood to deepen enhance and interrogate the theological and philosophical set of ideas known as Personalism McNamara proposes a new eschatological form of personalism that is consistent with current neuroscience models of relevant brain functions concerning the self and personhood and that can meet the catastrophic challenges of the 21st century Eschatological Personalism rooted in the philosophical tradition of Boston Personalism takes as its starting point the personalist claim that the significance of a self and personality is not fully revealed until it has reached its endpoint but theologically that end point can only occur within the eschatological realm That realm is explored in the book along with implications for personalist theory and ethics Topics covered include the agent intellect dreams and the imagination future orientation and eschatology phenomenology of Time social ethics Love the challenge of AI privacy and solitude and the individual ethic of autarchy This book is an innovative combination of the neuroscientific and theological insights provided by a Personalist viewpoint As such it will be of great interest to scholars of Cognitive Science Theology Religious Studies and the philosophy of the mind Plutarch's Lives ... Plutarch,1888

Existence as a Real Property Francesco Berto,2012-10-17 This profound exploration of one of the core notions of philosophy the concept of existence itself reviews then counters via Meinongian theory the mainstream philosophical view running from Hume to Frege Russell and Quine summarized thus by Kant Existence is not a predicate The initial section of the book presents a comprehensive introduction to and critical evaluation of this mainstream view The author moves on to provide the first systematic survey of all the main Meinongian theories of existence which by contrast reckon existence to be a real full fledged property of objects that some things possess and others lack As an influential addition to the research literature the third part develops the most up to date neo Meinongian theory called Modal Meinongianism applies it to specific fields such as the ontology of fictional objects and discusses its open problems laying the groundwork for further research In accordance with the latest trends in analytic ontology the author prioritizes a meta ontological viewpoint adopting a dual definition of meta ontology as the discourse on the meaning of being and as the discourse on the tools and methods of ontological enquiry This allows a balanced assessment of philosophical views on a cost benefit basis following multiple criteria for theory evaluation Compelling and revealing this new publication is a vital addition to contemporary philosophical ontology
