The Iran-United States Claims Tribunal Wayne Mapp, 1993 An assessment of the Tribunal's jurisprudence and its contribution to international arbitration The Tribunal was set up as part of the resolution of the hostage crisis to settle property claims between the two states and their nationals arising from the Iranian revolution The normal mechanisms for such situations were politically unacceptable to both parties so an international tribunal was established controlled by independent arbitrators The analysis focuses on two themes how the tribunal has applied international law to the issues before it and the extent to which it is recognized as an international arbitral body and its awards are enforced by municipal courts Distributed in the US by St Martin's Press Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR The Department of State Bulletin, 1983-04 The Forum, 1896 International Organizations and the Law of the Sea 1998 Barbara Kwiatkowska, Harm Dotinga, Erik J.
