with great earnestness the popular books written by scientists for their enlightenment We common readers to adapt a phrase from Samuel Johnson are fitted neither to criticize physical theories not to decide what precisely are their implications We are dependent upon the scientists for an exposition of those developments which so we find them proclaiming have important and far reaching consequences for philosophy Unfortunately however our popular expositors do not always serve us very well
The two who are most widely read in this country are Sir Arthur Eddington and Sir James Jeans They are not always reliable guides Their influence has been considerable upon the reading public upon theologians and upon preachers they have even
