Vatican Finances:

Organised Crime, Financial Crime, and Criminal Justice Dan Jasinski, Amber Phillips, Ed Johnston, 2023-05-15 Organised crime and financial crime are pressing global problems increasingly recognised as policy priorities both by national governments and international bodies and corporations This proudly interdisciplinary collection is built on the premise that these topics are too often artificially separated both in scholarship and the classroom Bringing together scholars from law the social sciences and the humanities this book showcases a diverse range of perspectives on these complex and compelling global issues and the criminal justice challenges that they pose The themes discussed include legal theory and procedure regulation and enforcement prevention and punishment media representation and perception Readers are encouraged to think outside traditional disciplinary bounds and form their own connections and conclusions inspired by the juxtaposition of perspectives rarely seen together in the same volume

Money and the Rise of the Modern Papacy John F. Pollard, 2005-01-06 This the first scholarly study of the finances and financiers of the Vatican between 1850 and 1950 Dr Pollard a leading historian of the papacy explores the transformation of the Vatican into a major financial power and the part this played in the development of the modern papacy Using hitherto unexplored sources he sheds new light on tensions between the Vatican s engagement with capitalism and the Church s social teaching and conflicts between the Vatican and the Allies during the Second World War and the early Cold War
