The veracious imagination Cushing Strout,1981      The Works of George Eliot: The legend of Jubal, and other poems George Eliot,1887      Narratives and Spaces David E. Nye,1997 Nye analyzes the transformation of the Grand Canyon and Niagara Falls into tourist sites the history of light shows at world s fairs the New Deal programs designed to provide electricity to rural areas and the Apollo 11 moon to reveal how the spaces we live in and the technology we use are integral to American identity and a key part of American self representation Nye also turns his attention to the Internet where technology has not simply transformed space but created a whole new kind of space and with it new stories Nye analyzes the transformation of the Grand Canyon and Niagara Falls into tourist sites the history of light shows at world s fairs the New Deal programs designed to provide electricity to rural areas the Apollo 11 moon landing and the new narratives of the Internet to reveal how the spaces we live in and the technology we use are integral to American identity and a key part of American self representation In examining the interaction of technology space and American narrative Nye argues against the idea that technology is an inevitable and insidious controller of our lives      George Eliot's Works: Impressions of Theophrastus Such. Novel Approaches to Anthropology Marilyn Cohen,2013-09-05 This volume of interdisciplinary essays reflect current contributions to literary anthropology Novel Approaches to Anthropology Contributions to Literary Anthropology showcases the myriad ways that anthropologists bring their disciplinary perspectives theories concepts and pedagogical strategies to interpreting fiction and travel writing written in the past and present The authors integrate insights from the reflexive deconstructive turn in anthropology and from critical Marxist and feminist approaches that ground interpretation in the political economic and social constraints and experiences of everyday life The contributors share the view that fiction like all artistic expression is rooted in specific historical and cultural contexts Literature like all artistic expression stimulates a critical imagination by allowing readers to take a fresh look at their own society and culture      George Eliot's Works George Eliot,1894      The Past is a Foreign Country David Lowenthal,1985-11-14 Lowenthal looks at the benefits and burdens of the past how we study the past and how we change it      The Thinking Historian Eric W. Sager,2025-01-27 What is history What are historians doing when we create our histories The need for answers is more urgent than ever We live in an era when history is often rejected or ignored and when all teachers of history confront formidable challenges In the culture of screen capitalism and social media historical knowledge is evaded in an expanding present minded consciousness How can history be defended and what is it that we are defending This book argues that history is a mode of thinking a form of imaginative reasoning with its own informal logic In non technical language and using examples from important works of history the book defines core elements in historical thinking These include contingency complexity temporality parts and wholes consilience perspectives analogy and abduction These elements are subsumed into the concept of imaginative reasoning The overall argument echoes the work of hermeneutic philosophers History is a disciplined imagination tempered and empowered by its forms of reasoning It embraces ethical imperatives that the historian has a duty to declare Equipped with such understanding historians may answer the many rejections of history and secure its place in our shared futures
