Visual Aesthetics:

Visual Aesthetics J. J. De Lucio-Meyer, 1974 Visual aesthetics is an attempt to bridge the gap between the orthodox method of teaching art appreciation which is mainly historical and the modern approach to design theory which is predominantly visual It is an essentially down to earth non mystical approach which links up movements in the visual arts with related fields such as the theater and music It does not deal with psychological and philosophical concepts but in simple terms back cover

The Aesthetic Dimension of Visual Culture Jakub Stejskal, 2010-08-11 How can aesthetic enquiry contribute to the study of visual culture There seems to be little doubt that aesthetic theory ought to be of interest to the study of visual culture For one thing aesthetic vocabulary has far from vanished from contemporary debates on the nature of our visual experiences and its various shapes a fact especially pertinent where dissatisfaction with vulgar value relativism prevails Besides the very question ubiquitous in the debates on visual culture of what is natural and what is acquired in our visual experiences has been a topic in aesthetics at least since the Enlightenment And last but not least despite attempts to study visual culture without employing the concept of art there is no prospect of this central subject of aesthetic theory ebbing away from visual studies The essays compiled in this volume show a variety of points of intersection and involvement between aesthetics and visual studies some consider the future of visual art some the conditions and characteristics of contemporary visual aesthetic experience while others take on the difficult question of the relation between visual representation and reality What unites them is their authors willingness to think about contemporary visual culture in the conceptual frame of aesthetics This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of philosophical aesthetics art history and cultural studies

Psychology and Visual Aesthetics R. W. Pickford, 2025-09-01 Originally published in 1972 the aim of Psychology and Visual Aesthetics was to present a study mainly concerned with experimental work on visual aesthetics From the rather restricted approaches of Fechner the pioneer of experimental aesthetics whose book Vorschule der Aesthetik was published in 1876 there had been a spread of interest out of the confines of the psychological laboratory to statistical studies personality problems and social psychology Although not a history of experimental aesthetics it was hoped that the various phases of development would be apparent as follows at first laboratory studies mainly on individuals then statistically oriented studies with numbers of subjects in the 1940s the beginnings of the mathematical analysis of aesthetic judgments then the introduction of personality studies including the problems of the aesthetic judgments of psychiatric patients and in the 1950s and 1960s the development of studies based on social psychology and the cross cultural approaches These changes had taken place hand in hand with developments in psychology as a whole and of psychological techniques as will be evident in the chapters that follow The changes correspond to the successive developments of Fechnerian experimental work then of Gestalt Psychology then intelligence tests and tests of special capacities and abilities then personality tests and the understanding of abnormal psychology and finally the expansion of research into what was now often called experimental social psychology Today it can be read in its historical context This book is a re issue originally published in 1972 The language used is a reflection of its era and no offence is meant by the Publishers to any reader by this re publication

Introduction to Aesthetics George Dickie, 1997 The responses of the cultural theories in the 1960s to these earlier developments are then discussed in detail Four additional topics intentionalistic criticism symbolism metaphor and expression are also addressed Finally five traditional art evaluational theories are presented and the author constructs an evaluational theory of his own by building on ideas drawn from the work of Monroe Beardsley and Nelson Goodman The Visual Aesthetics of Baz Luhrmann's "Red Curtain Cinema" Anett Koch, 2014-06-18 Master's Thesis from the year 2014 in the subject Communications Movies and Television grade 1 3 University of Mannheim language English abstract By using music dancing colorful settings and costumes to accompany the dramatic story Baz Luhrmann s films stimulate all senses and intensify the movie experience to a degree that makes viewers aware of the artificiality and artistry involved So called Red Curtain films keep the audience engaged at all times by using theatrical rather than naturalistic cinema devices This approach of storytelling is a conscious choice that can be attributed to Luhrmann s comprehensive experience in arts and media Although he is best known for his visually and symbolically charged films Luhrmann has also worked in theater and opera both behind and on stage In addition he has produced music videos and worked in journalism and fashion Thus it is not surprising that all these experiences influence his current work Luhrmann s films are characterized by a theatric style that combines dancing and singing with rapid cuts and editing giving the impression that one is participating in the live action rather than just sitting passively in the auditorium
