It is no secret that the United States is facing an obesity epidemic with the obesity rates continuing to rise year after year According to the Center for Disease Control one third of Americans are now obese It is no longer sufficient to simply point out the health risks of obesity to our patients as the reason to lose weight Patients are seeking guidance in terms of what specific diet plan to follow and what foods should be eaten There are thousands of diets on the market with new ones introduced daily Not all diet plans have proven results nor will they work for every patient More importantly not all diets marketed to the public are safe to follow for an extended timeframe In fact research shows us that diet composition is not the key to long term success but compliance to a calorie deficient diet is the solution So how does one choose which diet plan to recommend to patients Finally a book for clinicians is here to help answer this question This book provides information to help patients understand several different research proven diets on the market today including the Atkins diet the DASH Dietary Approaches to Stop Hypertension diet the I diet the Mediterranean diet Paleo Diets South Beach Vegetarian diets Weight Watchers and the Zone diet Each diet is carefully and thoroughly reviewed in this book by some of America's top

The Publishers Weekly, 1990 Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1993 Excess and Embodiment in Contemporary Women's Writing Zeynep Zeren Atayurt, 2011-08-01 The obese female body has often been portrayed as the other to the slender body However this process of othering or viewing as different has created a repressive discourse where excess has increasingly come to be studied as a physical abnormality or a signifier of a personality defect in contemporary Western society This book engages with the multifarious re imaginings of the excessive embodiment in contemporary women s writing drawing specifically on the construction of this form of embodiment in the works of Fay Weldon Jeanette Winterson Margaret Atwood Claude Tardat and Judith Moore whose texts offer a distinct literary response to the rigidly homogeneous and limiting representations of fatness while prompting heterogeneous approaches to reading the excessive female embodiment
