Daphne Kutzer, 1996-01-09 Multicultural fiction is an essential part of the American literary landscape This reference helps scholars teachers and librarians choose significant texts from both the past and present and provides guidance in approaching multicultural issues as they are discussed in fiction for young adults Included are entries for 51 writers some of whom have nearly been forgotten others who are just emerging Each entry provides biographical critical and bibliographical information while a general bibliography of works on multicultural literature concludes the book Authors included range from the nearly forgotten such as Laura Adams Armer to the newly discovered

such as Graham Salisbury winner of the 1994 Scott O Dell Award for Historical Fiction The breadth of authors covered ensures an historical context for the issues raised by multiculturalism and the sections on the critical reception of each author address such important issues as the authority and authenticity of the writer to comment on a different culture Contributors are of many different ethnicities and include important scholars of children s literature lending authenticity and authority to the volume itself Foundry ,1925 The Westminster ,1905 Martin Crimp: Plays 3 Martin Crimp,2015-11-12 Cruel and Tender A mordantly knowing modernisation of Sophocles s Trachiniae The approach here manages to be at once lethally level and capable of surges of anguished feeling Highly recommended Independent Fewer Emergencies A triptych of vicious modern fairy tales that brings the nightmare right back and stabs you through the soul Guardian The City Although this is the most disquieting play in London there is a curious exhilaration about both the performance and Crimp s confrontation with our perpetual unease Guardian Definitely the Bahamas A summation of a life lived vicariously at the margins of other lives between suffocating suburban walls and the play is as unflinching as it is unnerving The Times Play House Play House concerns the volatility and vulnerability of love as a young couple Simon and Katrina set up home Unusually for Crimp the play both begins and ends with moving declarations of love Suddenly this usually chilly dramatist seems unexpectedly blessed with a warm heart Daily Telegraph In the Republic of Happiness Crimp goes so far as to call it an entertainment in three parts and it rocks along like a dystopian vaudeville The actors are imprisoned and liberated at once their strange between worlds condition a source of joy intemperateness and above all a care for our diversion My favourite play of the year What s on Stage The Poetic New World Lucy Henderson Humphrey,1910 The Golden Book of Modern English Poetry 1870-1920 Thomas Caldwell,1922 The Home Book of Verse Burton Egbert Stevenson,1912 Poems of sentiment and reflection ,1912
