

Tablet 1:3

Establish unto thyself principles of action and see that thou ever act according to them.

So shall thy passions have no rule over thee:

*So shall your constancy ensure unto thee
the good thou possesseth;*

And drive from thy door misfortune.

Anxiety and disappointment shall be strangers to thy gates.

*Suspect not evil in anyone until thou seeth
it; When thou seest, forget it not.*

Who so hath been an enemy, cannot be a friend; for a man mendeth not his faults.

How should his actions be right, who hath no rule over his life?

Nothing can be just which proceedeth not from reason.

*The inconstant hath no peace in his soul;
neither can he be at ease with whom he concerns himself with.*

His life is unequal;

His motions are irregular;

His soul changeth with the weather.

Today he loveth thee, tomorrow thou art detested by him; and why? Himself knoweth not wherefore he now hateth.

Today he is the tyrant, tomorrow thou servant is less humble; and why? He who is arrogant without power, will be servile while there is no subjection.

Today he is profuse; tomorrow he grudgeth unto his mouth that which it should eat.

Thus is with him who knoweth not moderation.

Who shall say of the chameleon: "he is black," when the moment after the verdure of the grass, overspreadeth him?

Who shall say of the inconstant: "he is joyful," when his next breath shall be spent in sighing?

What is the life of such a man, but the phantom of a dream?

Tablet 1:3

In the morning he riseth happy, at noon he is on rake; this hour he is god, the next below a worm; one moment he laugheth the next he weepeth; he now willeth, in an instant he willeth not;

In an another he knoweth not whether he wills or not.

Yet neither ease nor pain have fixed themselves on him; neither is he waxed greater, or become less; neither hath he had cause for laughter, or reason for his sorrow; Therefore none of them abide with him. The happiness of the inconstant is as a palace built on the surface of the sand; The blowing of the wind carrieth away its foundation.

What wonder then that it falleth?

But what exalted form is this, that hitherward directs its even,

Its uninterrupted course whose foot is on earth, Whose head is above the clouds?

On his brow sitteth majesty; steadiness is in port; and in his heart reigns tranquillity.

*Though obstacles appear in his way, he condescends not to look down upon them;
though heaven and earth oppose his passage; he proceedeth.*

*The mountains sink beneath his tread;
The waters of the ocean are dried up under the sole of his foot.*

*The tiger throweth herself across his way in
vain;*

The spots of the leopard glow against him unregarded.

He marcheth through the embattled legions;

With his hands he putteth aside the terrors of death.

Storms roar against his shoulders, But are not able to shake them.

*The thunder bursteth over his head in
vain;*

Thunders Slaves:

A Refuge in Thunder Rachel E. Harding, 2003-02-19 An important detailing of the development and evolution of a major institution of the African Diaspora and of Brazilian and Afro Brazilian identity Sheila S Walker The Afro Brazilian religion Candomblé has long been recognized as an extraordinary resource of African tradition values and identity among its adherents in Bahia Brazil Outlawed and persecuted in the late colonial and imperial period Candomblé nevertheless developed as one of the major religious expressions of the Afro Atlantic diaspora Drawing principally on primary sources such as police archives Rachel E Harding describes the development of the religion as an alternative space in which subjugated and enslaved blacks could gain a sense of individual and collective identity in opposition to the subaltern status imposed upon them by the dominant society The Religion of the Etruscans Nancy Thomson de Grummond, Erika Simon, 2009-04-20 Devotion to religion was the distinguishing characteristic of the Etruscan people the most powerful civilization of Italy in the Archaic period From a very early date Etruscan religion spread its influence into Roman society especially with the practice of divination The Etruscan priest Spurinna to give a well known example warned Caesar to beware the Ides of March Yet despite the importance of religion in Etruscan life there are relatively few modern comprehensive studies of Etruscan religion and none in English This volume seeks to fill that deficiency by bringing together essays by leading scholars that collectively provide a state of the art overview of religion in ancient Etruria The eight essays in this book cover all of the most important topics in Etruscan religion including the Etruscan pantheon and the roles of the gods the roles of priests and divinatory practices votive rituals liturgical literature sacred spaces and temples and burial and the afterlife In addition to the essays the book contains valuable supporting materials including the first English translation of an Etruscan Brontoscopic Calendar which guided priests in making divinations Greek and Latin sources about Etruscan religion in the original language and English translation and a glossary Nearly 150 black and white photographs and drawings illustrate surviving Etruscan artifacts and inscriptions as well as temple floor plans and reconstructions Divining the Etruscan World Jean MacIntosh Turfa, 2012-07-16 The Etruscan Brontoscopic Calendar is a rare document of omens foretold by thunder It long lay hidden embedded in a Greek translation within a Byzantine treatise from the age of Justinian The first complete English translation of the Brontoscopic Calendar this book provides an understanding of Etruscan Iron Age society as revealed through the ancient text especially the Etruscans concerns regarding the environment food health and disease Jean MacIntosh Turfa also analyzes the ancient Near Eastern sources of the Calendar and the subjects of its predictions thereby creating a picture of the complexity of Etruscan society reaching back before the advent of writing and the recording of the calendar Ellerton Theological Prize Essay, 1869.
