Best Of John B Keane John B. Keane,1999-01-01 In this volume are hundreds of short pieces which represent the distillation of the experience of a funny witty wise and passionate observer of the bright tapestry of Irish life All human life is here and Keane tells its story in an astonishing procession of remarkable characters and in rare humorous glimpses of his own career This is a collection to prize The Celebrated Letters of John B. Keane Vol 2 John B Keane,2000-01-01 A further collection of John B Keane s highly successful letters This book includes Letters of a Civic Guard Letters of an Irish Publican Letters of a Country Postman and Letters to the Brain Four very different people in four very different circumstances and the thread that binds them is John B Keane s skill at recognising the follies and weaknesses of men and women The letter writers and their correspondents prove to be fine examples of this Moll John B. Keane,2014-03-07 Moll is a hilarious and highly successful comedy about life in an Irish country presbytery When a presbytery gets a new housekeeper it becomes like a country that gets a change of government or like a family that gets a new stepmother Moll Kettle would work for no less than a canon for in her own words Tis hard to come back to the plain black and white when one is used to the purple John B Keane was one of Ireland s most prolific and respected literary figures He was born in 1928 in Listowel County Kerry and it was here that he spent his literary career running a pub which provided him with inspiration for his characters and ideas His first play Sive was presented by the Listowel Drama Group and won the All Ireland Drama Festival in 1959 It was followed by another success Sharon s Grave in 1960 The Field 1965 and Big Maggie 1969 are widely regarded as classics of the modern Irish stage and jewels in a crown which includes such popular hits as Many Young Men of Twenty The Man from Clare Moll The Chastitute and The Year of the Hiker His large canon of plays have been seen abroad in cities as far afield as Moscow and Los Angeles Big Maggie ran on Broadway for over two months in 1982 and The Field was adapted into an Oscar winning Hollywood film starring Brenda Fricker and Richard Harris in 1991 Making Ireland Irish Eric G. E. Zuelow,2009-03-01

From the dark shadow of civil war to the pastel painted towns of today Making Ireland Irish provides a sweeping account of the evolution of the Irish tourist industry over the twentieth century Drawing on an extensive array of previously untapped or underused sources Eric G E Zuelow examines how a small group of tourism advocates inspired by tourist development movements in countries such as France and Spain worked tirelessly to convince their Irish compatriots that tourism was the secret to Ireland s success Over time tourism went from being a national joke to a national interest Men and women from across Irish society joined in eager to help shape their country and culture for visitors eyes The result was Ireland as it is depicted today a land of blue skies smiling faces pastel towns natural beauty ancient history and timeless traditions With lucid prose and vivid detail Zuelow explains how careful planning transformed Irish towns and villages from grey and unattractive to bright and inviting sanitized Irish history to avoid offending Ireland s largest tourist market the English and supplanted traditional rural fairs revolving around muddy animals and featuring sexually suggestive ceremonies with new family friendly festivals and events filling today s tourist calendar By challenging existing notions that the Irish tourist product is either timeless or the consequence of colonialism Zuelow demonstrates that the development of tourist imagery and Irish national identity was not the result of a handful of elites or a postcolonial legacy but rather the product of an extended discussion that ultimately involved a broad cross section of society both inside and outside Ireland Tourism he argues played a vital role in making Ireland Irish
