Subversive Spirituality L. Paul Jensen, 2009-08-01 Subversive Spirituality links the practice and study of Christian spirituality with Christian mission It develops a twofold thesis grace spiritual disciplines and mission practices are inseparably linked in the mission of Jesus of the early church and of several historical renewal movements as well as in a contemporary field research sample and amidst the collapse of space and time evidenced by our culture s increasingly hurried pace of life more time and space are needed for regular solitary and communal spiritual practices in church mission and leadership structures if Christian mission is to transform people and culture in our time This requires a subversion of the collapsed spatial and temporal codes that have infected our Christian institutions Jensen employs methods and approaches from a variety of academic disciplines to explore both spirituality in terms of space and time and mission in terms of deed and word Specifically Jensen examines the spirituality and mission of Jesus the early church the apostolic fathers Origen the Devotio Moderna the early Jesuits David Brainerd and several women in 19th century Protestant missions He considers the spirituality and mission that have arisen within the postmodern generations born after 1960 Based on the theological historical cultural and field analyses of this study a model for spirituality and mission is proposed The model addresses the contemporary collapse of space and time and appears to have widespread applicability to diverse cultures and eras Jensen s model is applied to the pluralistic and postmodern milieu of North America with recommendations for spirituality and mission in church mission and educational structures A derivative model for teaching and practicing spirituality and mission in the academy which also has application for non formal leadership development structures is also proposed

Singing into Splintered Spaces E. Janet

Warren,2022-12-07 Contemporary society can be described as splintered busy and noisy but also empty and in need of healing Christians are called to sing the Lord s song anew to the world but are sometimes confused about whether to prioritize loving God or loving our neighbor This collection of essays shows that both are needed mission and spiritual disciplines are actually intertwined and reciprocal Some contributors to this volume take a theoretical perspective others write from their experience in ministry Disciplines discussed include classic ones like prayer and study as well as novel ones like cruciformity mindfulness and neighborhood engagement Written in accessible language with multiple anecdotes this book aims to inspire both the practice of spiritual disciplines and the practice of mission Join us as we journey from the Philippines to American nationalism to a prayer truck in inner city Hamilton as we engage in quiet contemplation as well as compassionate action Guided by the Holy Spirit we dance rhythms of resting and responding listening and leading praying and proclaiming Whether through solitude discipleship groups inviting strangers to dinner speaking out against idolatry and injustice or simply being present we join Jesus as he repairs the splintered spaces of our lives Dynamics of Religion

Christoph Bochinger,Jörg Rüpke,2016-11-21 Religious ideas practices discourses institutions and social expressions are in constant flux This volume addresses the internal and external dynamics interactions between individuals religious communities and local as well as global society The contributions concentrate on four areas 1 Contemporary religion in the public sphere The Tactics of In visibility among Religious Communities in Europe Religion Intersecting De nationalization and Re nationalization in Post Apartheid South Africa 2 Religious transformations Forms of Religious Communities in Global Society Political Contributions of Ancestral Cosmologies and the Decolonization of Religious Beliefs Esoteric Tradition as Poetic Invention 3 Focus on the individual Religion and Life Trajectories of Islamists Angels Animals and Religious Change in Antiquity and Today Gaining Access to the Radically Unfamiliar in Today s Religion Religion between Individuals and Collectives 4 Narrating religion Entangled Knowledge Cultures and the Creation of Religions in Mongolia and Europe Global Intellectual History and the Dynamics of Religion On Representing Judaism Summit of Spiritual Understanding ,1933

The Healing Power of Spirituality: Religion J. Harold Ellens,2010 Subversive Spirituality, Transforming Mission, and the Collapse of Space and Time Lyle Paul Andrew Jensen,2007 This dissertation links the practice and study of Christian spirituality and Christian mission It argues 1 that an inseparable relationship between spiritual and mission practices that are rooted in grace exists during periods of expansion in Jesus mission and that of the early church as well as in several historical renewal movements and a contemporary field research sample and 2 that amidst our culture s collapse of space and time evidenced by our increasingly hurried pace of life much more space and time are regularly needed for solitary and communal spiritual practices in church mission and leadership structures In Western societies mission that transforms people and culture requires a subversion of the collapsed spatial and temporal codes which have infected Christian institutions of learning fellowship and mission The dissertation proposes a model for spirituality and mission that is constructed on the theological historical cultural and field study analyses that comprise the research The model addresses the contemporary collapse of space and time and appears to have widespread applicability to a variety of cultures and eras Based on this model recommendations are made for spirituality and mission in church mission and educational structures in the increasingly pluralistic postmodern context of North America A derivative model for teaching and practicing spirituality and mission in the academy is also suggested which also has application for non formal leadership development structures
