Sufi Ritual:

Living Sufism Nicolaas H. Biegan,2009 Sufism the mystical tradition of Islam is as far from the strident and often violent fundamentalist strain of the religion that has so captured world attention as it is possible to be Sufis in all parts of the Islamic world are broad minded tolerant and non violent their quest only to find and approach God through all means including poetry music and dance Historian Nicolaas Biegan has been observing and photographing Sufi practice and ritual in different Muslim lands for many years and here in this collection of extraordinary photographs he feels the pulse of the Sufi experience with its enormous variety in discipline and exuberance intellectualism and spontaneity in Egypt Syria Bosnia and Herzegovina Kosovo and Macedonia In accompanying texts he explores what lies behind the rituals and explains aspects of Sufi life and practice such as the position of women

The Female Voice in Sufi Ritual Shemeem Burney Abbas,2010-06-04 The female voice plays a more central role in Sufi ritual especially in the singing of devotional poetry than in almost any other area of Muslim culture Female singers perform sufiana kalam or mystical poetry at Sufi shrines and in concerts folk festivals and domestic life while male singers assume the female voice when singing the myths of heroines in qawali and sufiana kalam Yet despite the centrality of the female voice in Sufi practice throughout South Asia and the Middle East it has received little scholarly attention and is largely unknown in the West This book presents the first in depth study of the female voice in Sufi practice in the subcontinent of Pakistan and India Shemeem Burney Abbas investigates the rituals at the Sufi shrines and looks at women s participation in them as well as male performers use of the female voice The strengths of the book are her use of interviews with both prominent and grassroots female and male musicians and her transliteration of audio and videotaped performances Through them she draws vital connections between oral culture and the written Sufi poetry that the musicians sing for their audiences This research clarifies why the female voice is so important in Sufi practice and underscores the many contributions of women to Sufism and its rituals

Sufism Today Catharina Raudvere,Leif Stenberg,2009 This book offers the first sustained treatment of Sufism in the context of modern Muslim communities It is also innovative in that it broadens the purview of the study of Sufism to look at the subject right across international boundaries from Canada to Brazil and from Denmark to the UK and USA Subjects discussed include the politics of Sufism the remaking of Turkish Sufism tradition and cultural creativity among Syrian Sufi communities the globalization of Sufi networks and their transplantation in America Iranian Sufism in London and Naqshbandi Sufism in Sweden In its thorough examination of how Sufi rituals traditions and theologies have been adapted by late modern religiosity this volume will make indispensable reading for all scholars and students of modern Islam

Women Mystics and Sufi Shrines in India Kelly Pemberton,2010 Women Mystics and Sufi Shrines in India combines historical data with years of ethnographic fieldwork to investigate women s participation in the culture of Sufi shrines in India and the manner in which this participation both complicates and sustains traditional conceptions of Islamic womanhood Kelly Pemberton s fieldwork offers an assessment of the contemporary circumstances under which a woman may be recognized as a spiritual authority or guide despite official denial of such status and an examination of the discrepancies between the commonly held belief that women cannot perform in the public setting of shrines and her own observations of women doing precisely that She demonstrates that the existence of multiple models of master and disciple relationships have opened avenues for women to be recognized as spiritual authorities in their own right Specifically Pemberton explores the work of performance recitation and ritual mediation carried out by women connected with Sufi orders through kinship and spiritual ties and she maps shifting ideas about women s involvement in public ritual events in a variety of contexts circumstances and genres of performance She also highlights the private petitioning of saints the Prophet and God performed by poor women of low social standing in Bihar Sharif These women are often perceived as being exceptionally close to God yet are compelled to operate outside the public sphere of major shrines

Contesting Rituals Andrew Strathern,Pamela J. Stewart,2005 This book fills a current need in Islamic Studies for a perspective on the nuanced investigation of ritual practices rather than a concentration on politicized forms of ideology The essays in this volume all written by scholarly specialists with first hand fieldwork experience take up a number of questions central to Islamic religion and ritual focusing on rituals as practices of making identities Identities are seen as changing in response to historical forces rather than as unchanging and rigid and the overall vision of Islam is seen as pluralistic rather than monolithic Several of the essays deal with gender relations showing that women may in practice gain some prominence in local contexts beyond what might be allowed by reformist Islamicizing authorities This is particularly the case when the focus is on varieties of Sufism The essays also recognize that elements of conflict and contestation are commonly present in ritual contexts because of struggles over power hence the title Contesting Rituals Politics gender relations and conflict between central reformists and local ritual specialists are all involved in these contestations Overall the volume aims to show the multiplicity of Islam and to demonstrate how the themes of multiplicity and unity are played out continuously over time The contributors to the volume are Kelly Pemberton South Asia Anna M Gade Indonesia Susan J Rasmussen Africa Elaine S Hutson Africa Shampa
