Cannae: The Experience of Battle in the Second Punic War Gregory Daly, 2005-08-18 On a hot and dusty summer s day in 216 BC the forces of the Carthaginian general Hannibal faced the Roman army in a dramatic encounter at Cannae Massively outnumbered the Carthaginians nevertheless won an astonishing victory one that left more than 50 000 men dead Gregory Daly s enthralling study considers the reasons that led the two armies to the field of battle and why each followed the course that they did when they got there It explores in detail the composition of the armies and the tactics and leadership methods of the opposing generals Finally by focusing on the experiences of those who fought Daly gives an unparalleled portrait of the true horror and chaos of ancient warfare This striking and vivid account is the fullest yet of the bloodiest battle in ancient history

Shelley's Italian Experience Alan M. Weinberg, 2016-07-27 Focusing on Shelley s Italian experience the present study both addresses itself to the living context which nurtured Shelley s creativity and explores a neglected but essential component of his work The poet s four years of self exile in Italy 1818 1822 were in fact the most decisive of his career As he responded to Italy his poetry acquired a new subtlety and complexity of vision Endowed with remarkably keen powers of absorption the poet imaginatively reshaped the rich cultural heritage of Italy and the vital qualities of its landscape and climate

Sophistical Practice Barbara Cassin, 2014-04-03 Sophistics is the paradigm of a discourse that does things with words It is not pure rhetoric as Plato wants us to believe but it provides an alternative to the philosophical mainstream A sophistic history of philosophy questions the orthodox philosophical history of philosophy that of ontology and truth in itself In this book we discover unusual Presocratics wreaking havoc with the fetish of true and false Their logoi perform politics and perform reality Their sophistic practice can shed crucial light on contemporary events such as the Truth and Reconciliation Commission in South Africa where to quote Desmond Tutu words language and rhetoric do things creating things like the new rainbow people Transitional justice requires a consistent and sustainable relativism not Truth but truth for and enough of the truth for there to be a community Philosophy itself is about words before it is about concepts Language manifests itself in reality only as multiplicity different languages perform different types of worlds and difficulties of translation are but symptoms of these differences This desacralized untranslatability undermines and deconstructs the Heideggerian statement that there is a historical language of philosophy that is Greek by essence being the only language able to say what is and today is German Sophistical Practice constitutes a major contribution to the debate among philosophical pluralism unitarism and pragmatism It will change how we discuss such words as city truth and politics

Philologically and philosophically rethinking the sophisticated gesture relying on performance and translation it proposes a new paradigm for the human sciences

Holy Spirit and Religious Experience in Christian Literature ca. AD 90-200 John Eifion Morgan-Wynne, 2006-06-01 Holy Spirit and Religious Experience seeks to find out how far the centrality of the Holy Spirit in Christian experience during the earliest period of the church was maintained or diminished in the third to the fifth generations ca AD 90 200 Three themes are explored First the sense of encounter with the divine presence the numinous a sense of being caught up into the divine being or being overwhelmed by the One who is beyond us Secondly a sense of being illuminated in respect to the truth given deeper understanding of God s purpose whether for the individual or the congregation or guided in decision making Thirdly a sense of ethical empowerment an awareness of being helped by divine power assisted in a course of action or development of character in grappling with temptation or in the ultimate test of loyalty martyrdom This book is arranged geographically from Syria and Asia Minor in the East to Rome and Gaul in the West including North Africa and Egypt Christian authors within these areas are examined chronologically from the later New Testament writers through the second century to Clement of Alexandria and Tertullian of Carthage for the evidence they supply The variegated picture which emerges it is contended reflects second century Christianity

Virgil's Experience Richard Jenkyns, 1998-11-26 This book studies Virgil s ideas of nature history sense of nation and sense of identity It is exact and patient in its probing for nuance and detail but also bold wide and original in its scope It combines the study of Virgil with the study of attitudes to nature throughout antiquity Blending literature with history and in the case of Lucretius philosophy it offers a vision and an interpretation of the culture of the 1st century BC as a whole It argues that Lucretius and Virgil affected a revolution in Western sensibility claiming that a book about poetry should be a book about life it combines scholarship and precision with a sense of the importance of literature and its capacity to enhance our understanding of our past and of ourselves
